The following pages represent a year. Although they are but a small look, a mere scratching at the surface, we hope that some sort of mood and spirit of 1974 have been captured.

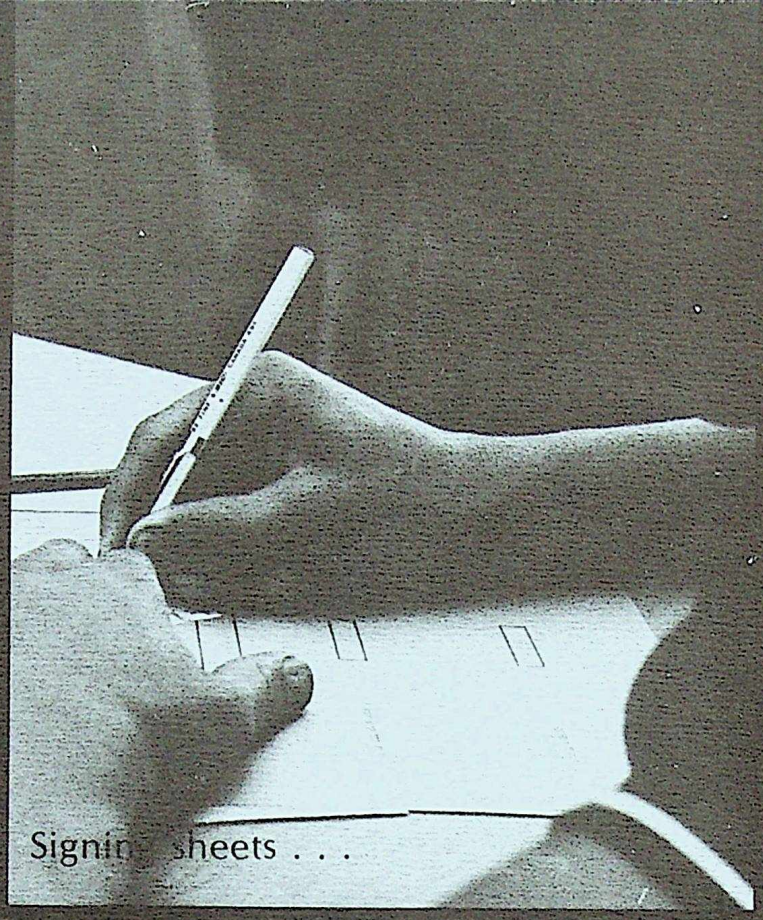
McNally is a many-faceted school, emphasizing both academic excellence and social growth. The beauty of its settings and surroundings is an aid to both of these — an ideal place to study or relax, and a peaceful area to talk and get to know people.

Athletics occupies a large part of the minds of students, and in less than a decade, such students have attained a high level of achievement for McNally in many sports.

Dramatics and the Arts have also played a large part, establishing McNally as a force on the Edmonton High School scene.

Other areas have contributed as well — a strong administration, excellent teachers, able-bodied Student's Union Executives, and even the occasional contest or pep-rally to bolster school spirit.

All of these have helped to develop the spirit of the year, and we hope that as it is unfolded through the pages of this book, memories might be recalled and moods recaptured to clearly bring to mind the motto "nihil sed optimum" nothing but the best.



Signin sheets . . .

. . . and room registrations start off another year at McNally.

A long lazy summer is over,
and our search for knowledge begins to take precedence in our thoughts.

Although
students take up
a great deal of our time,

we still find occasion to get into extracurricular activities,

or just sit around and talk.

Getting away from things is a wonderful feeling — — — a chance to reflect upon life, and to find what others think and feel.

Reflections on our thoughts when we are alone and sharing opinions when with others, leads to a deeper appeciation of those around us and ultimately ourselves.

The chance to be with someone else and relate to them
helps us to cope with our everyday lives.

The changing seasons brings about an indirect change in our attitude and outlook on life itself.

Record snowfalls, to put it mildly, tend to hem us in a little more than we like,
but the beauty of winter is not lost on us.

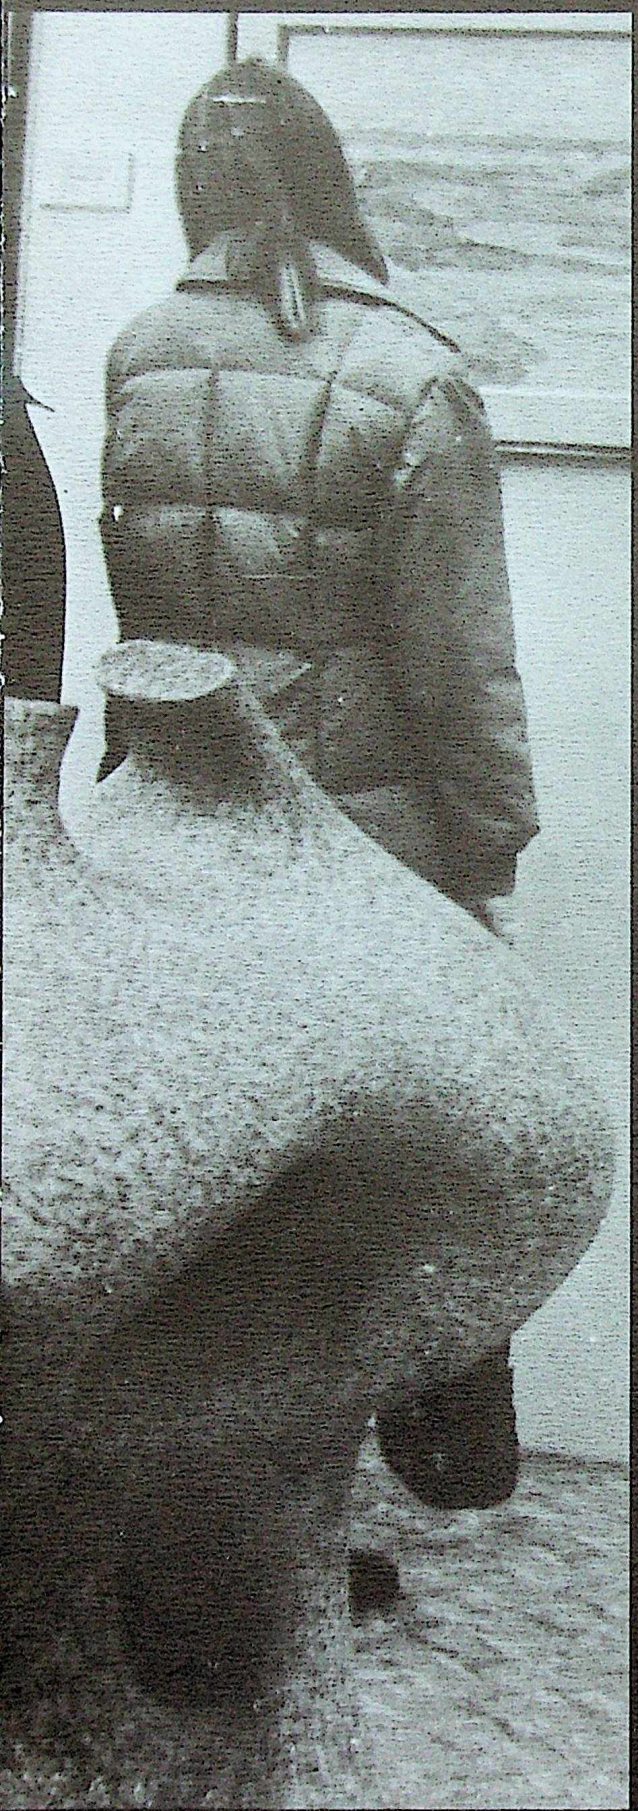
But we are not affected by seasons alone.

People, places, times and experiences add to our memories, and cause us to remember other places and times as well.



We also remember people.

We remember what made someone different — their peculiarities,
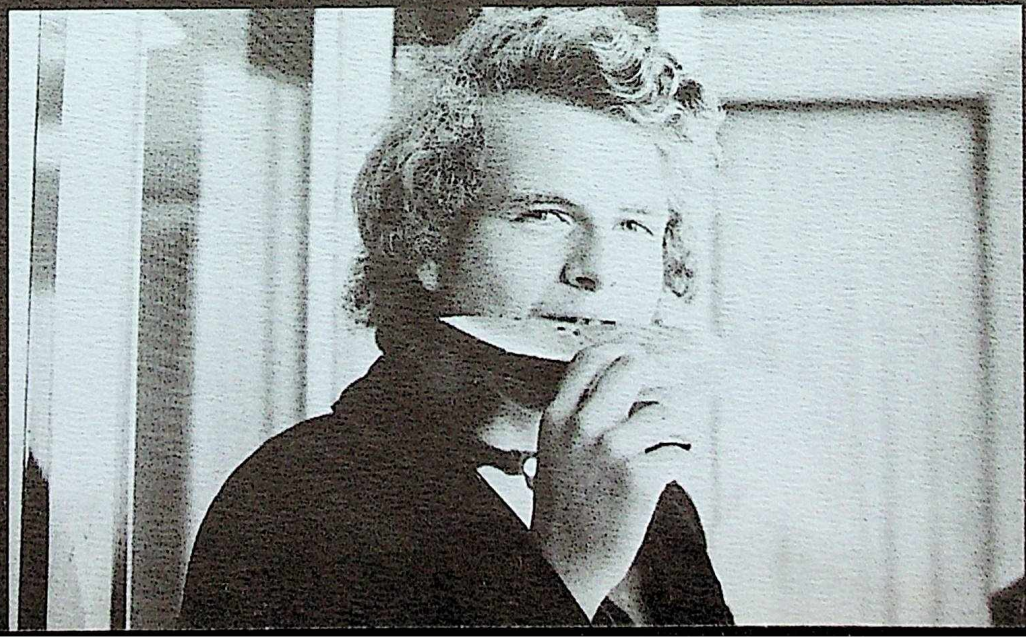
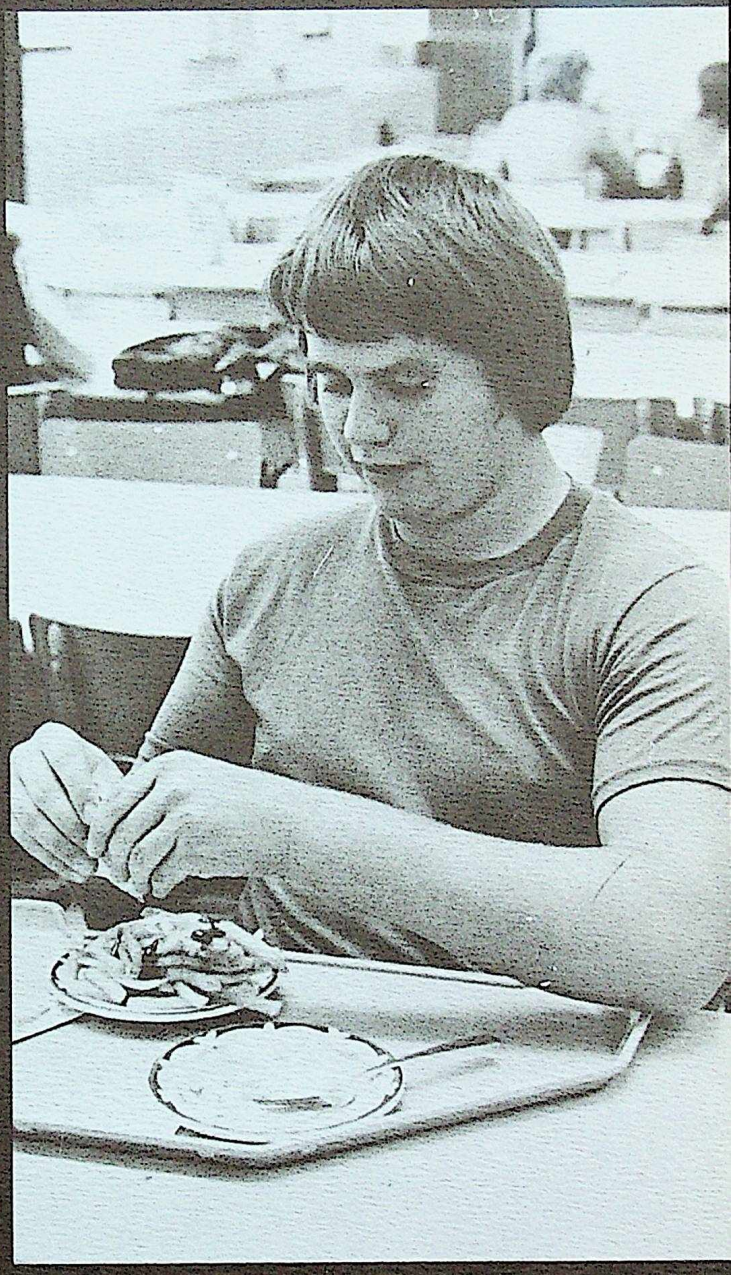
why we value their friendship.





We remember what made people what they were.

we remember the times we had and the feeling we got just being with or watching them.

Above all,
we remember the moments that made our years of High School three of the most meaningful years of our lives.

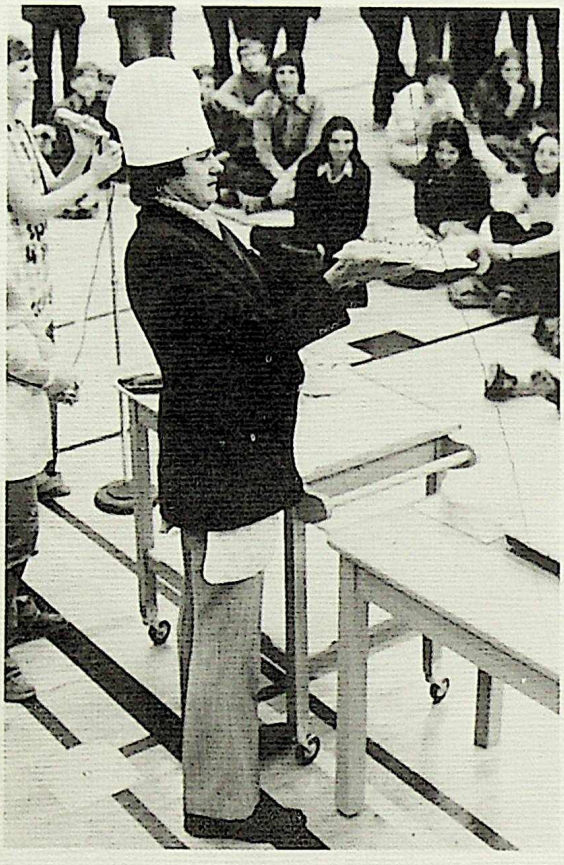
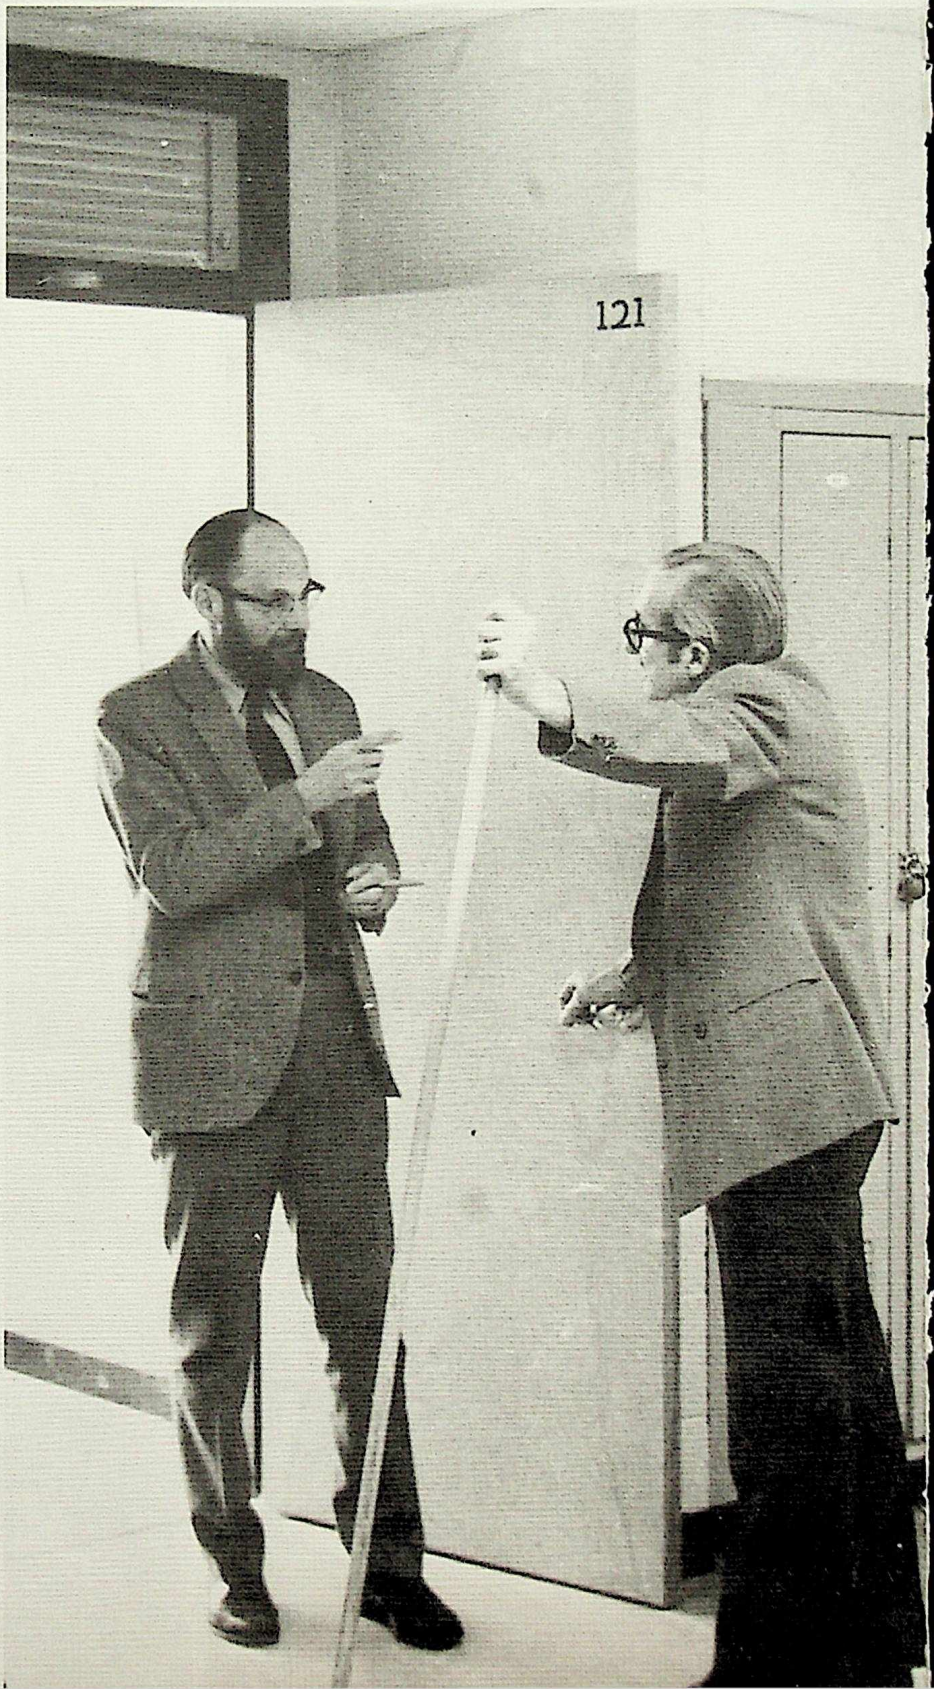
THE STAFF AT PLAY

Mr. McKinnon in the act of judging cakes that the boys made for Sadie Hawkins.

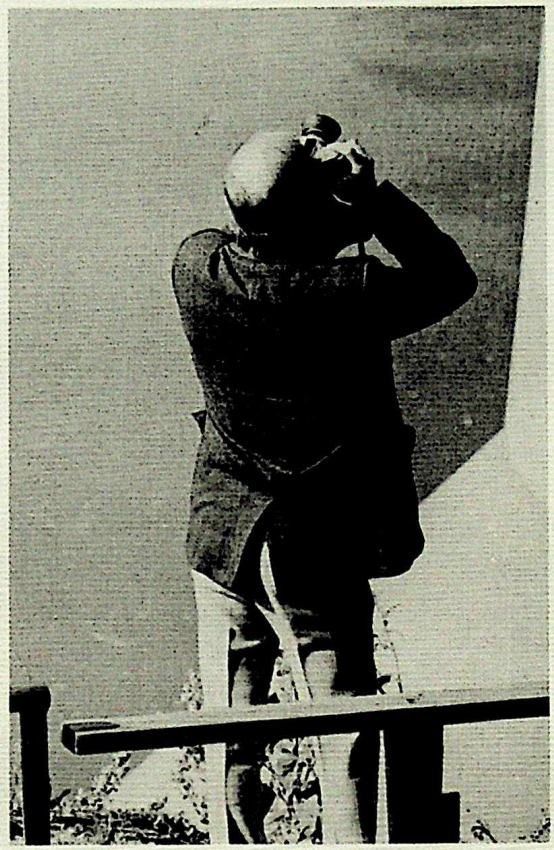


Mr. Watkins pleading innocent to the charges being levelled at him by Mr. Jardine.



Remembered for their lectures, their idiosyncrasies, and (if you happen to catch them) their casual moments . . . The staff at McNally are a peculiar bunch . . . peculiar in the sense of unique . . . unique in the sense of extraordinary . . . extraordinary in the sense of talented . . . and likeable. They can with equanimity expostulate, cajole, lecture or laugh . . . and they contribute a score of memories to this school and this publication.

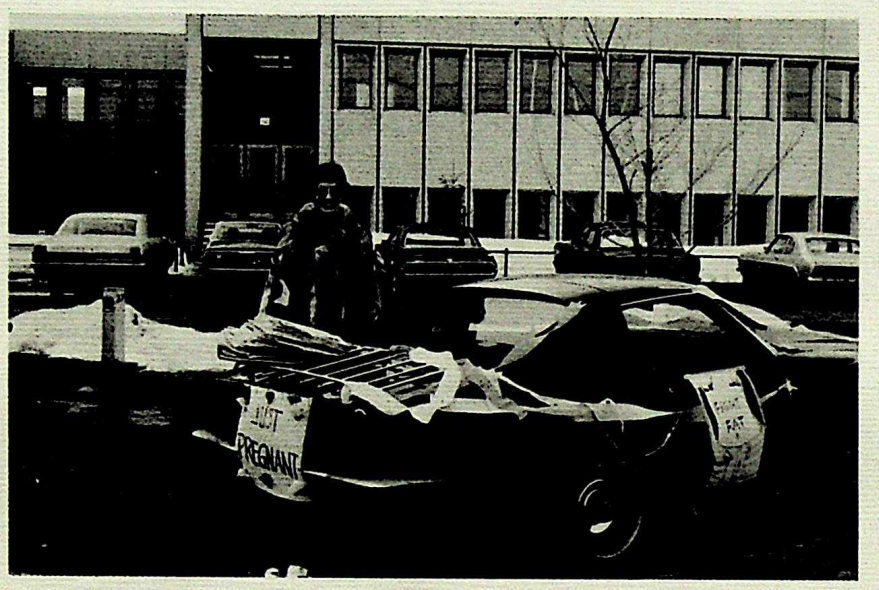
ach . . . ach . . . ach . . . ACH CHEW "Come now Mr. Rodatz, you can do better than that."



"Now if you will just hold that smile, and lean further out over the water, we'll have a great picture for the yearbook. . ." They did and he did, and you can see the results on page 11 and 13.

"Say the word and I'll separate the two . . . the head and the shoulders, that is."

Your guess is as good as mine, but I think it is one of the counsellors.



Prior to Mrs. Johnstone's leaving McNally to have her first baby, certain male staff members decided to decorate her car for the occasion.

ADMINISTRATION AND GUIDANCE

Someone once said, "School days are happy days" and I heartly agree with the sentiment as well as with the appropriateness of the theme chosen this year for our yearbook, Trend 74. I feel that there are those who would not concur with the initial thought, choosing instead to dwell on shortcomings rather than the positive side of our McNally school picture. In this context, The Trend comes into its own. I am most favorably impressed by the high standard of workmanship displayed in this edition; in its pages it portrays a wealth of school living as varied as the number of people who come here, mirroring on these pages the many sides of our school in a positive, vibrant manner. Those of us who pick up this book in future years will truly cherish it for reflecting for us, "Moments to Remember."

ACTIVITIES

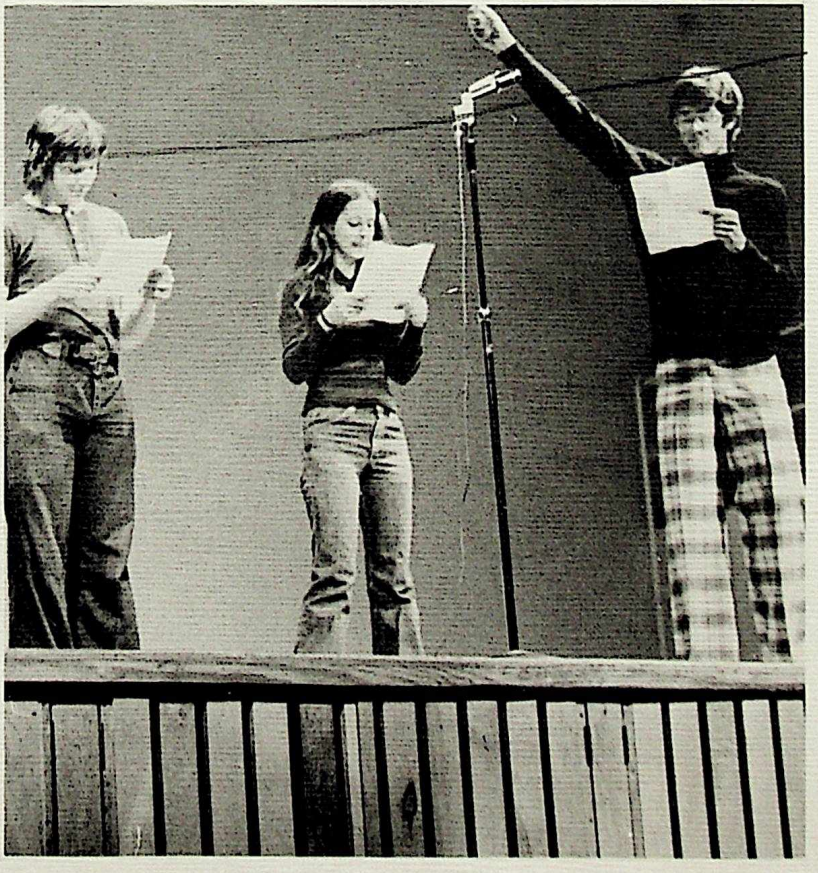
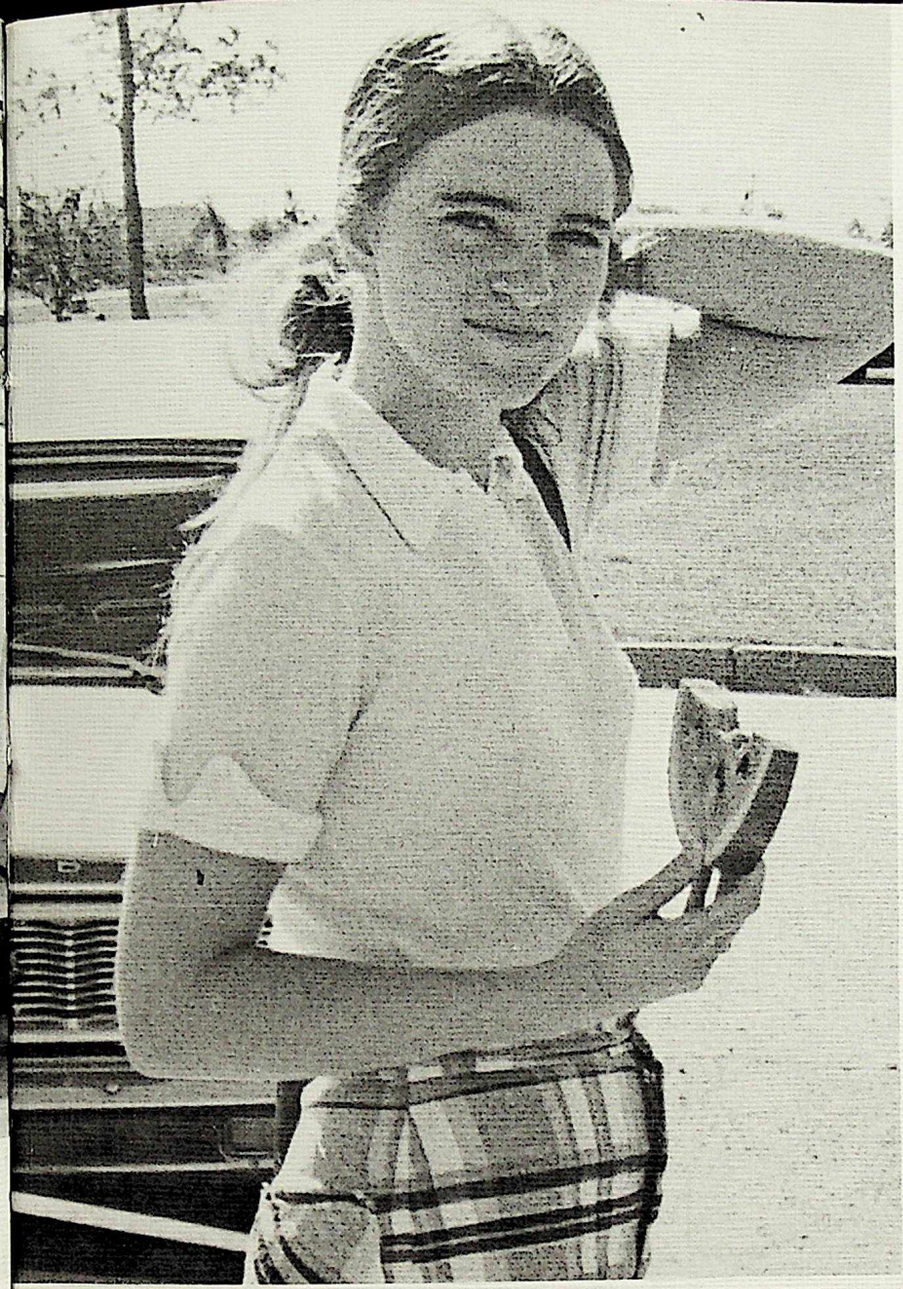
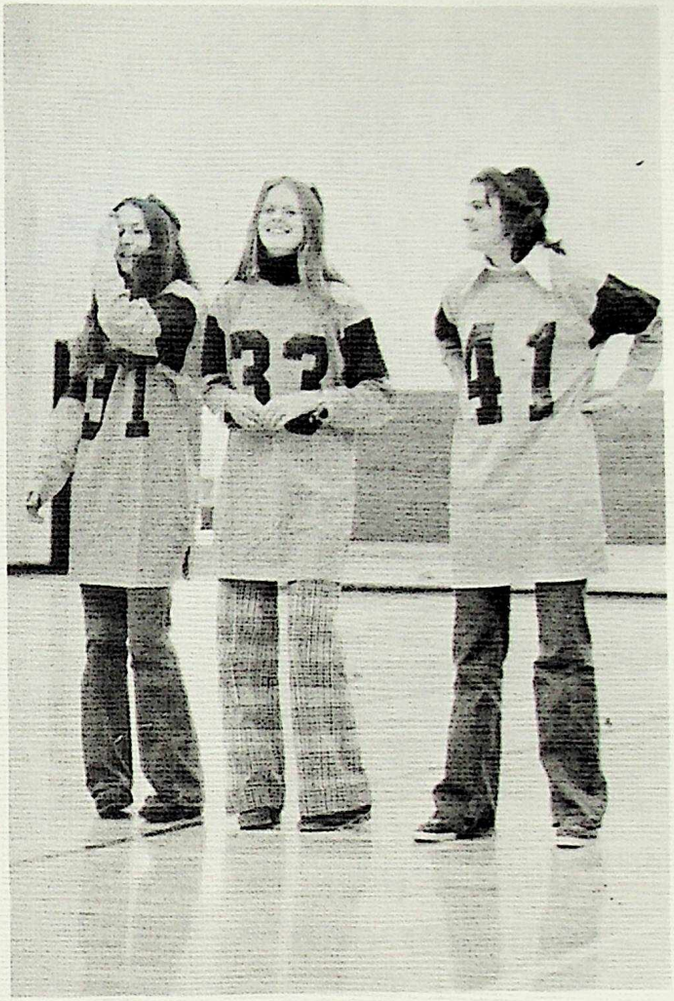
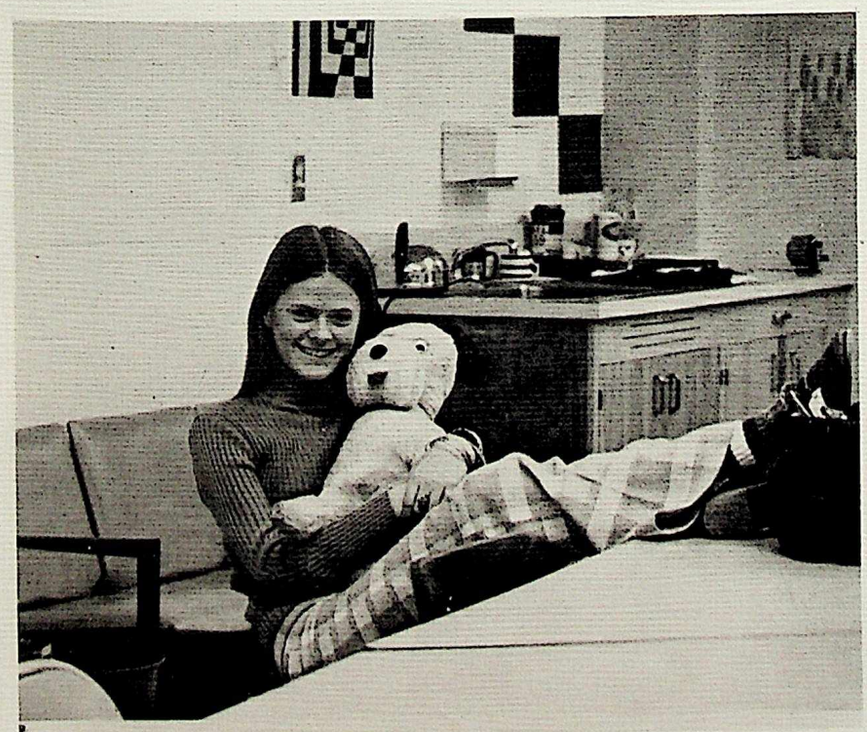
Back row, left to right — Lorraine Little (Girls' Sport Rep); Cheryl Smith (Grade Ten Rep). Middle row, left to right — Richard Aistrope (Treasurer); Cathy Hughes (President), Greg Anderson (Vice-President). Front row, left to right — Grace Watson (Social Convener); Karen McAmmond (Secretary), Cheryl Gunther (Grade Twelve Rep). Missing — Don Cholak (Boys' Sport Rep); Cathy Bamber (Grade Eleven Rep).









This year was one of uncountable new experiences in involvement for many people. For the executive and council, the year proved to hold many pleasurable and rewarding experiences as we learned about responsibility and involvement to its fullest, while enduring multiple meetings filled with headaches, hassles and frustration. Still we welcomed frosh without any broken bones, packed an extraordinary number of people into buses, and seals into envelopes, and gave fifteen families a a Merry Christmas. Further, new activities appeared, and with Ukrainian Day the kubasa disappeared. We wig-walked through the old times dance, and in Brylcreem and bobby-sox slid back to the "Grease Days"; and shortly after Easter some 25 people survived a 40 hour famine and the "growlies" 17,200 times. Activities, though being successful, provided many with their medium of involvement — while others found theirs in art, music, academics, athletics or in the many friendships they found. As this school year comes to an end, I would like to offer my thanks to everyone who assisted with and attended functions, to the teachers and the administration for the help they gave in all areas, to the yearbook staff and most of all, to everyone for being whatever part of McNally they were.

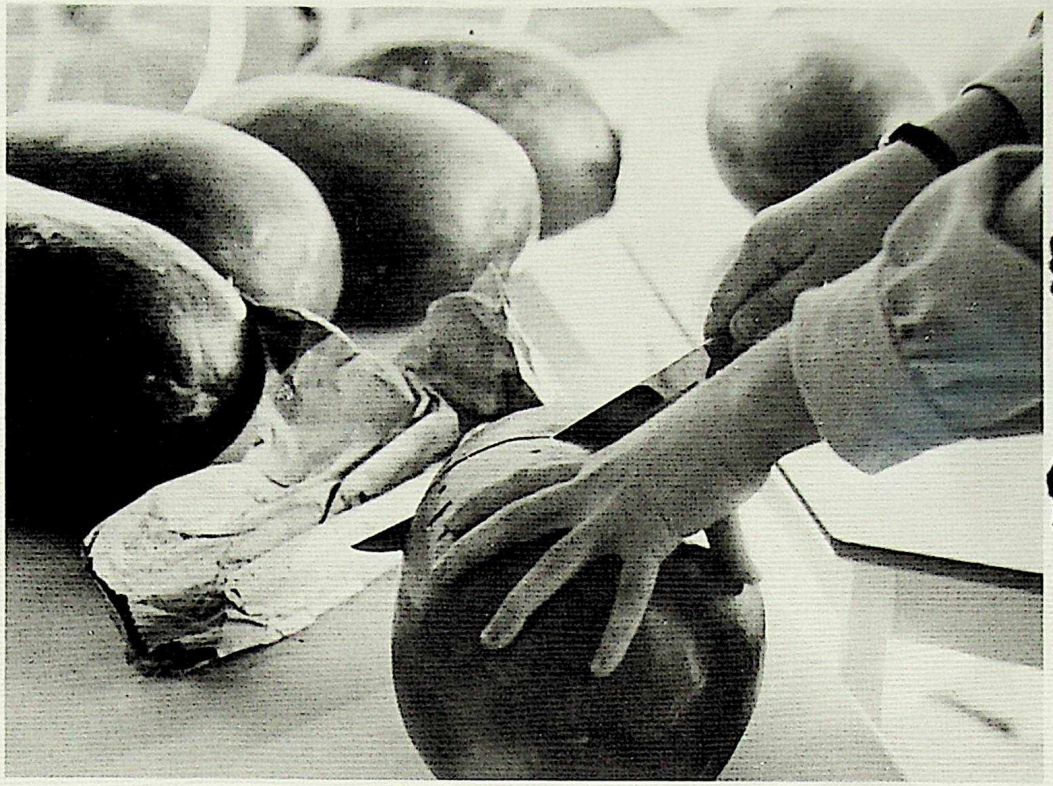
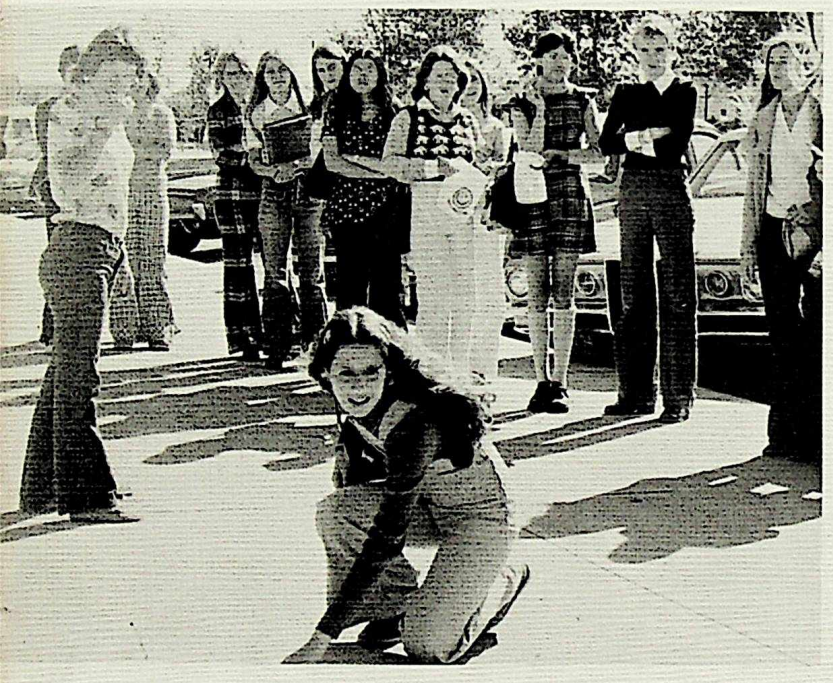
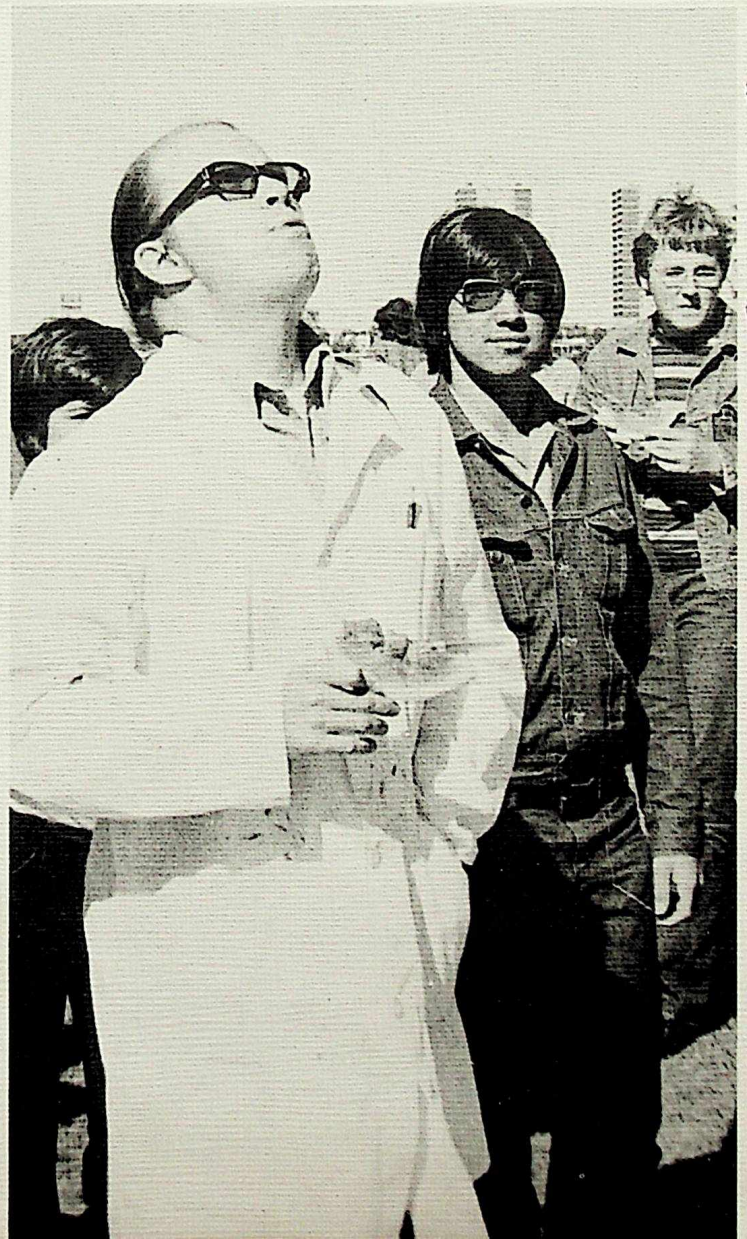
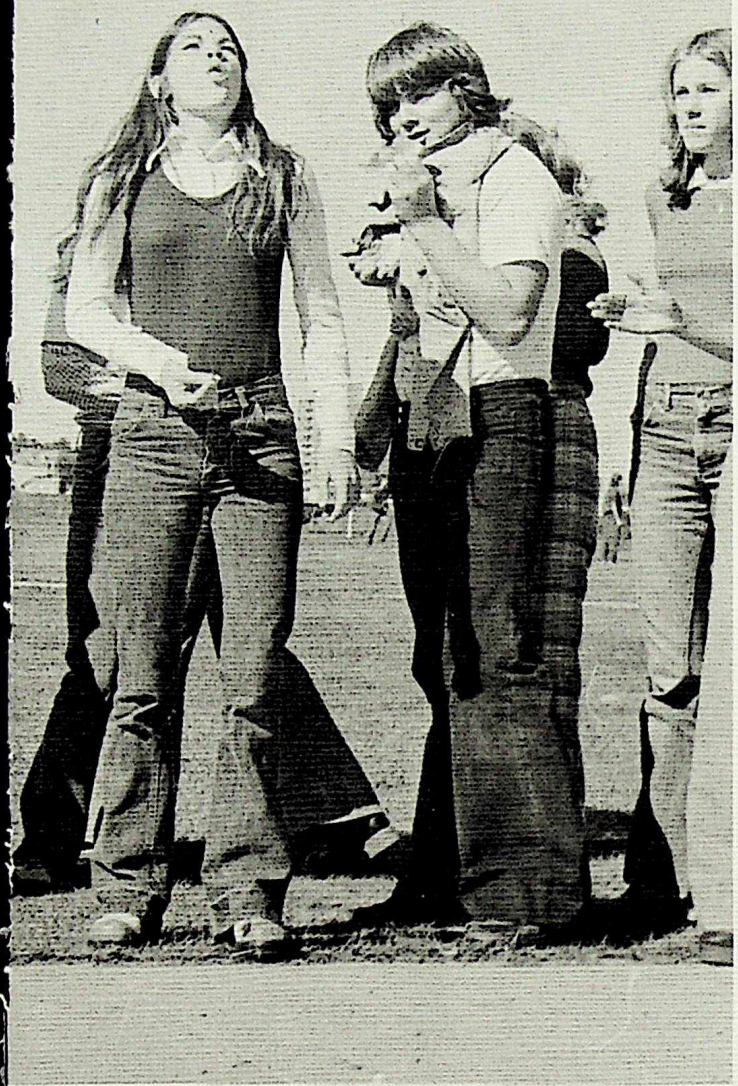
Watermelon Seed Spitting Contest

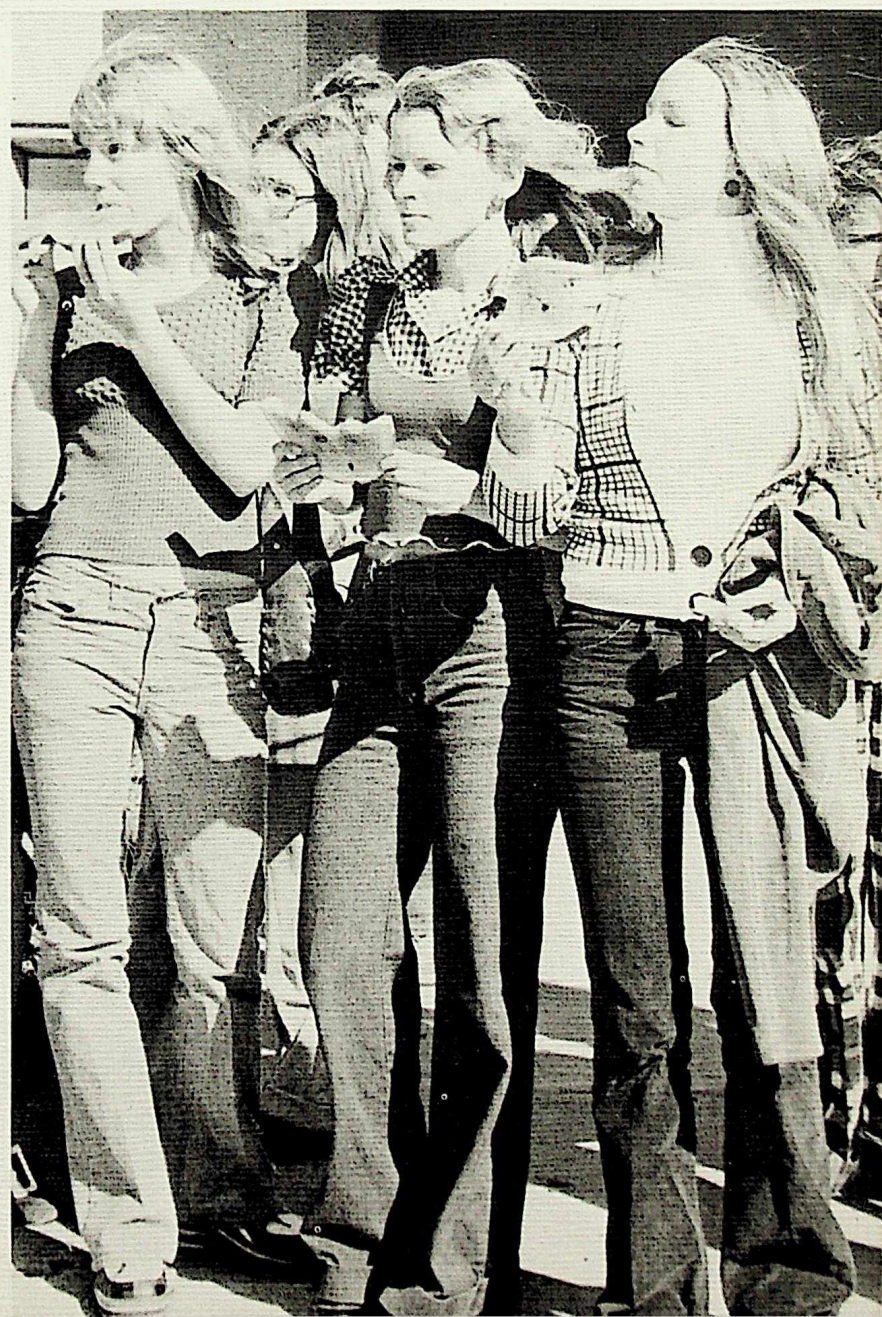






The "Watermelon Seed Spitting Contest" was enjoyed by students and teachers alike. In all about a dozen watermelons were consumed.





"Deep within each of us
there lies a fantastic, uncontrollable and insatiable urge . . . .

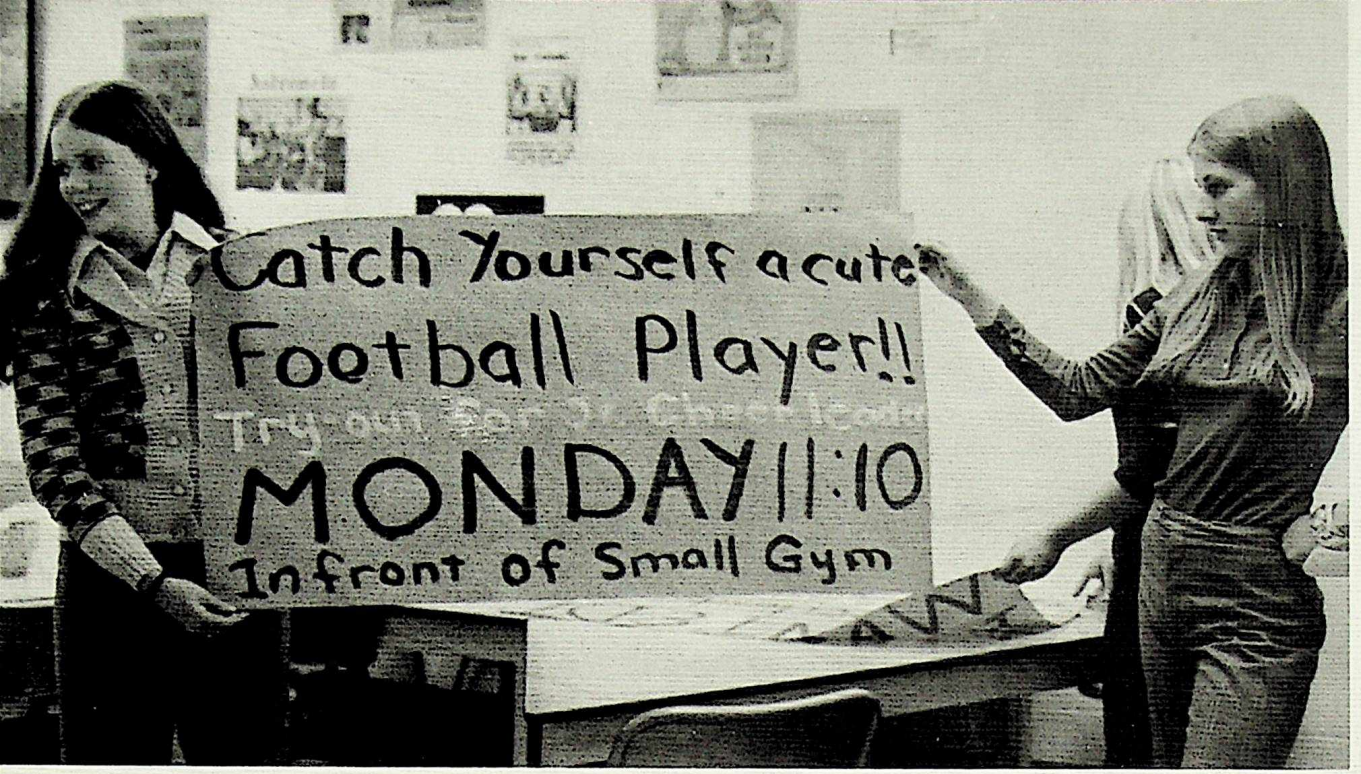
TO SPIT!!!"



None of us will ever forget the first football game we cheered at in the pouring rain, or the time half the squad had to wait an hour for a cab only to get stuck in a snowbank on the way to the game and arrive just in time to cheer our Tigers on for the last five minutes. Despite the first game, the year was a good one with both the basketball and volleyball teams making it to the city finals. Thanks to our faithful fans, the coach, and the teams, the year was one that credited McNally and will be long remembered.

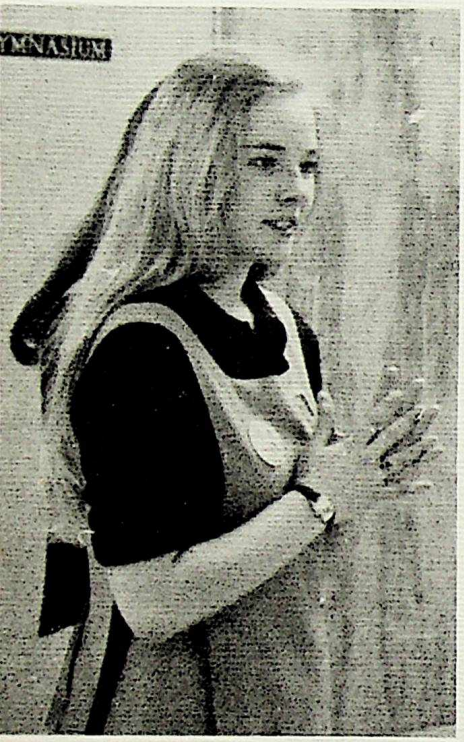
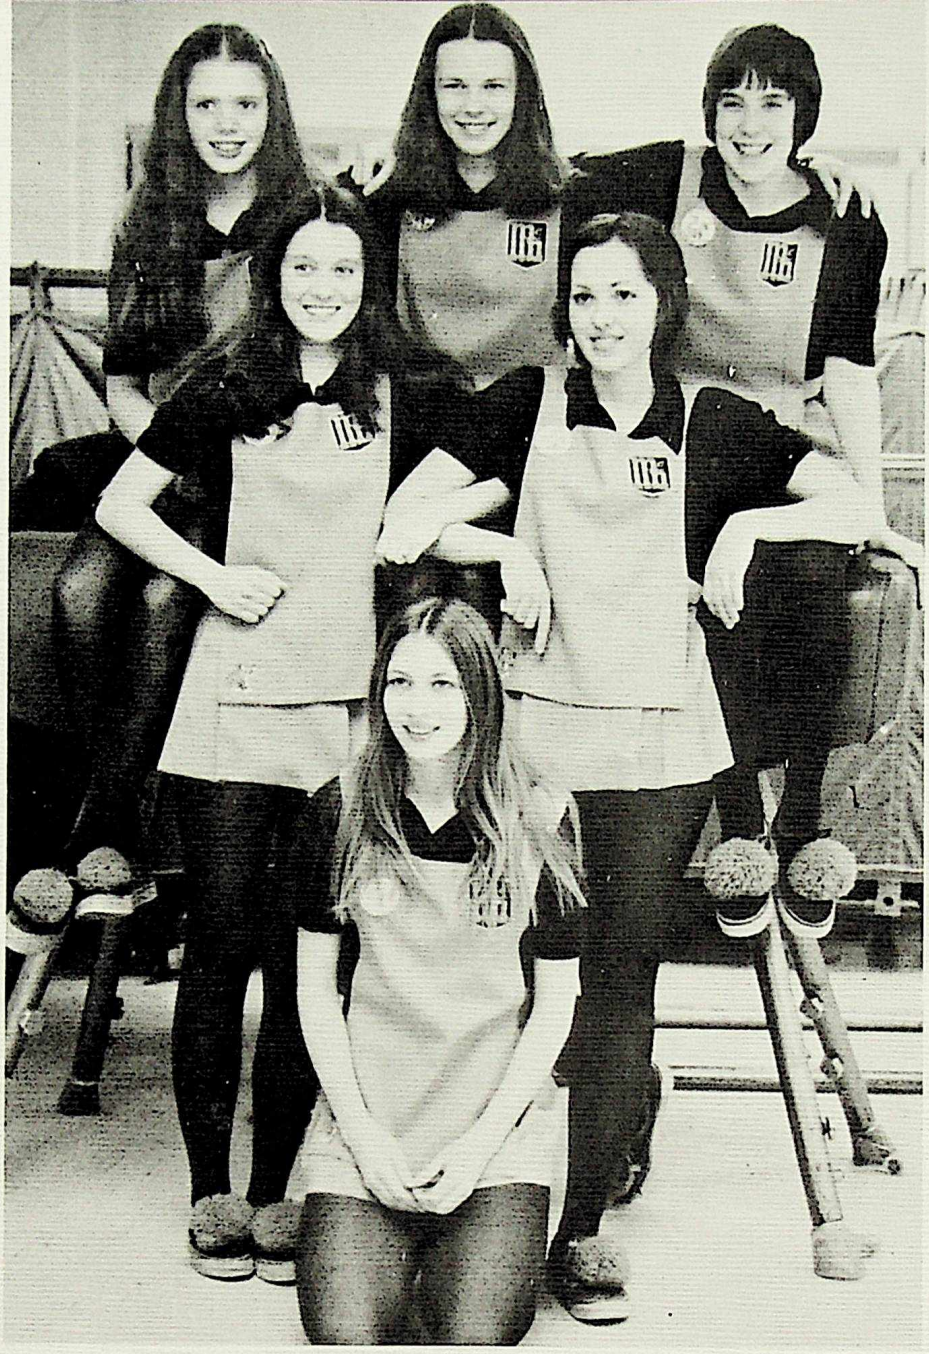
Led by our cheerleaders and the occasional long wooley — clad superfan, McNally followers had a good deal to cheer about. The majority of the football games were well attended, most notable was the City Final, which was played in 11° temperature and snow.

The halls at noon hour echo with the sound of clapping hands, stamping feet and boisterous cheers. The cheerleaders are at it again, and nothing deters their enthusiasm as they rehearse for the big game Friday night.





They begin their tryout in the spring, they practise before school opens, they never miss a game all year, and they cheer with equal enthusiasm whether the team is winning or losing. Without them the flavor of life and learning would be quite a bit flat.

SENIOR CHEERLEADERS

For their continuance in the fine tradition of cheerleading at our school, for their active participation the build up of school spirit, and for their delectable contribution to the visual improvement of the games they attended, the TREND salutes the cheerleaders.

SADIE HAWKIN'S DAY

THE SADIE CHICKS ARE COMING! The terrified cry reverberated down the corridors to start the action on Sadie Hawkin's day. Cake-baking and chug-a-lug contests followed as well as a tug-of-war and a different version of musical chairs.

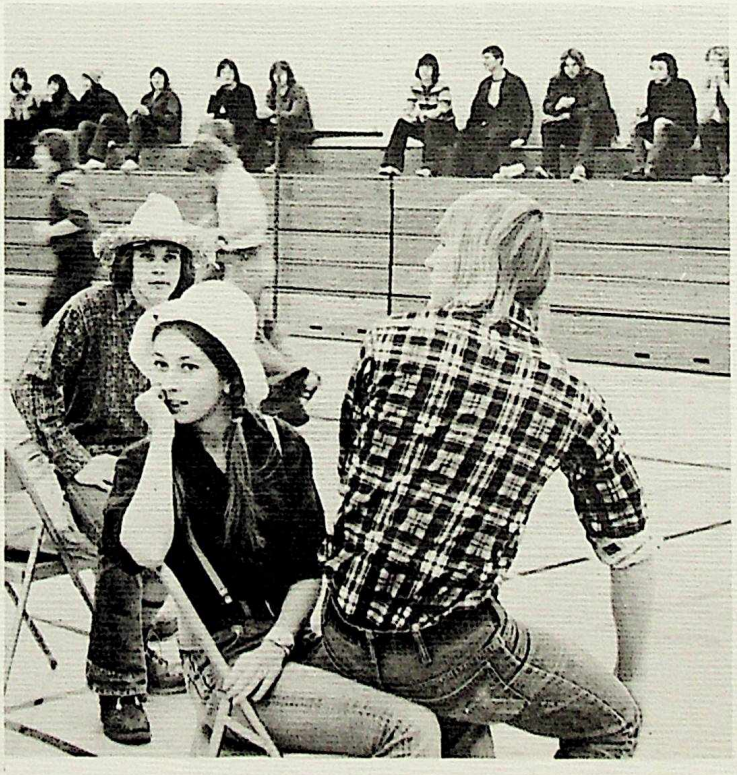
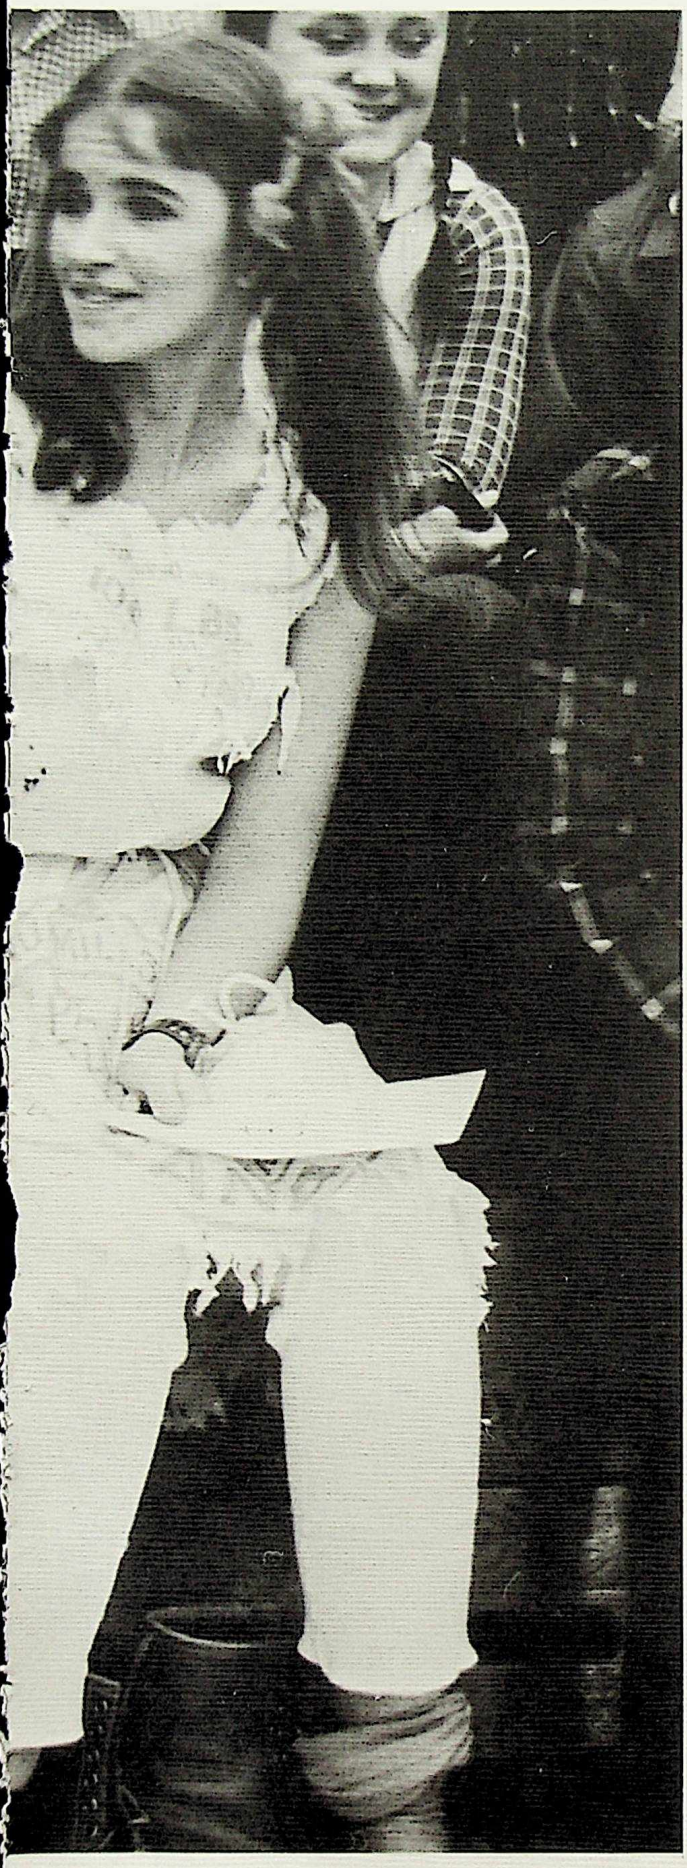
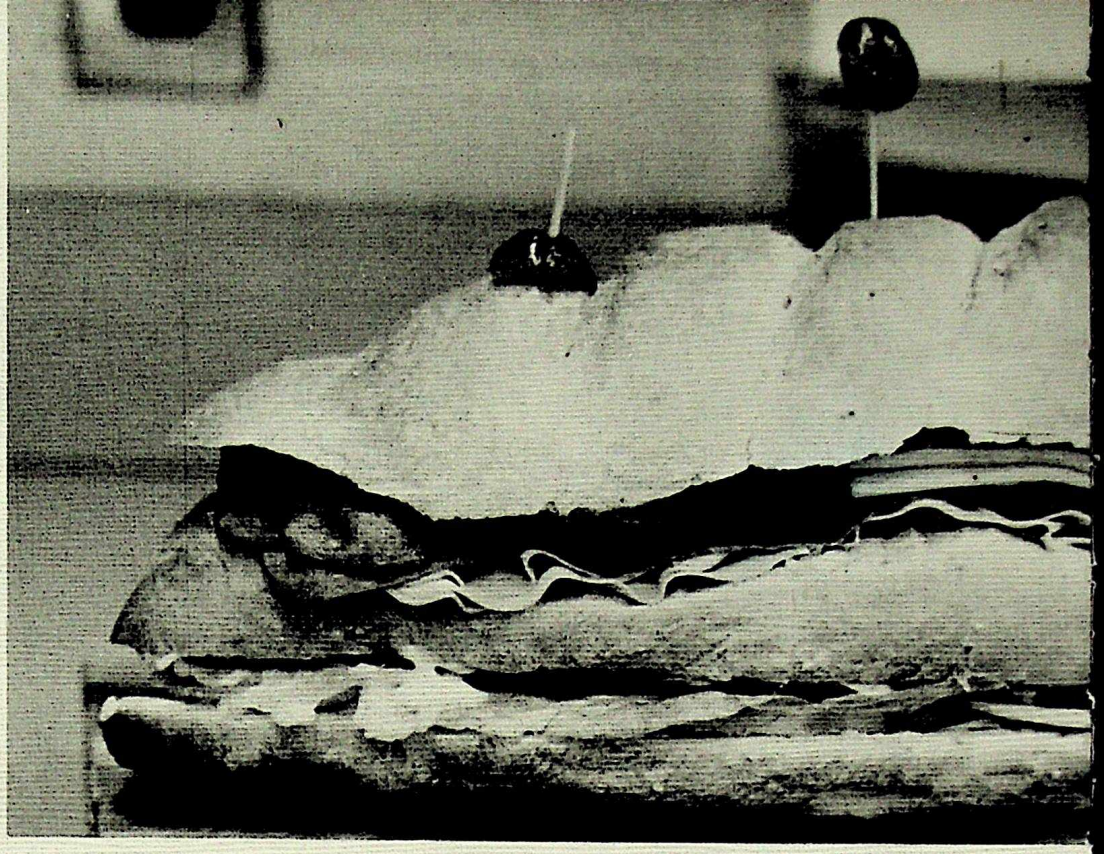
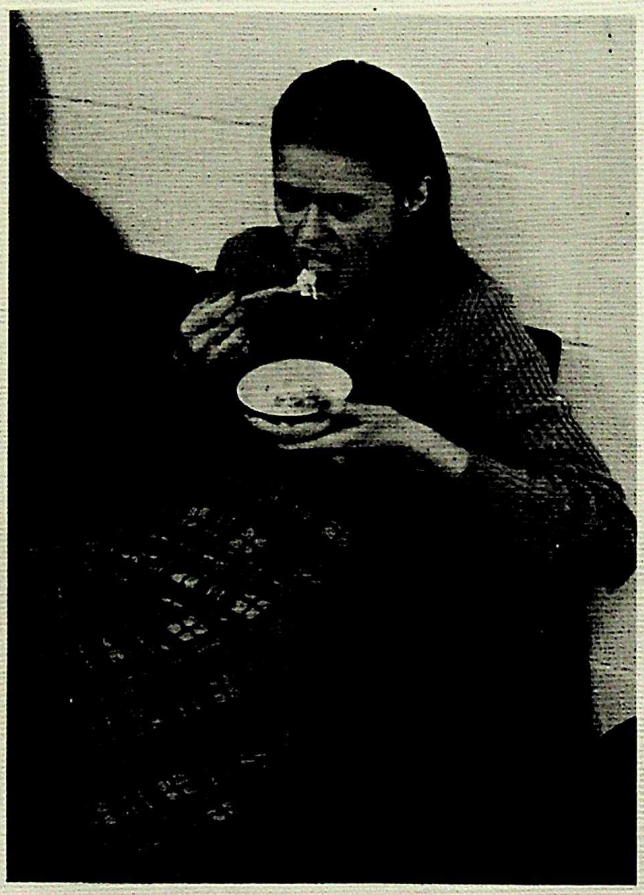
A good time was had by all, especially the girls who were able to lure their dream men to the Sadie Hawkin's dance that night.

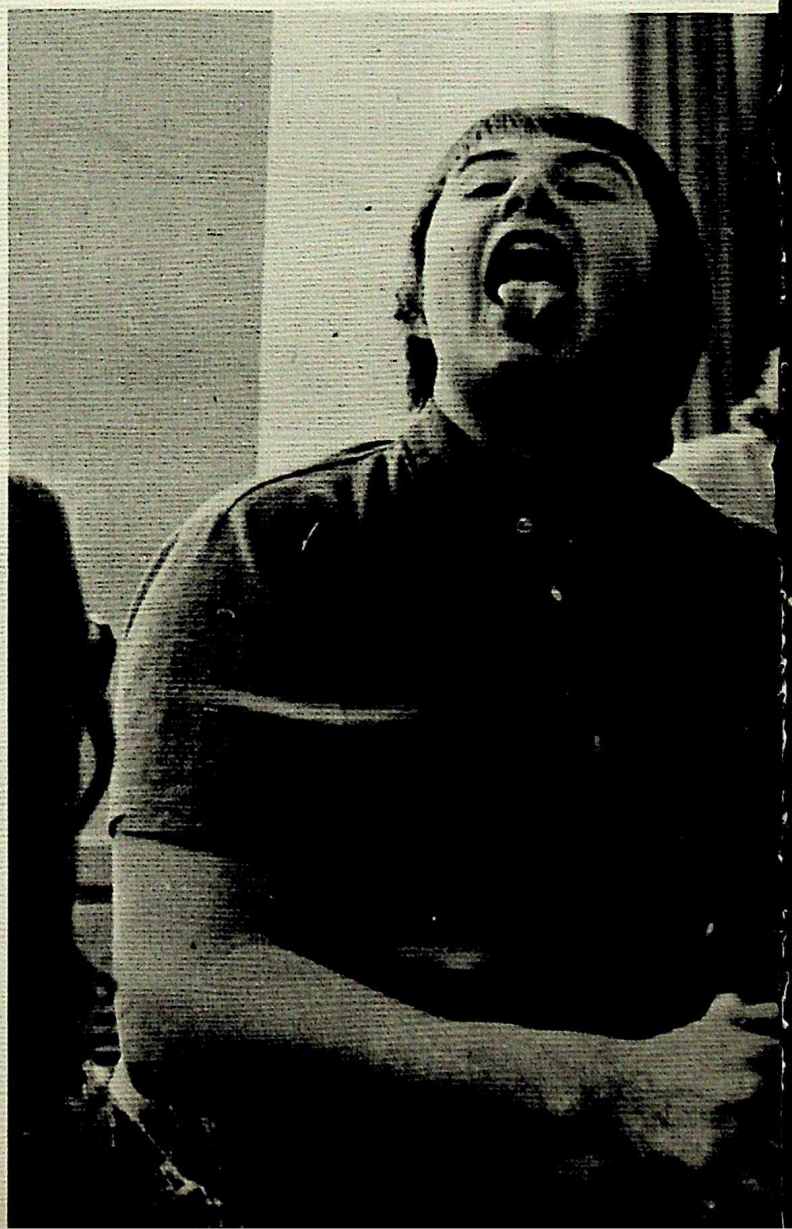


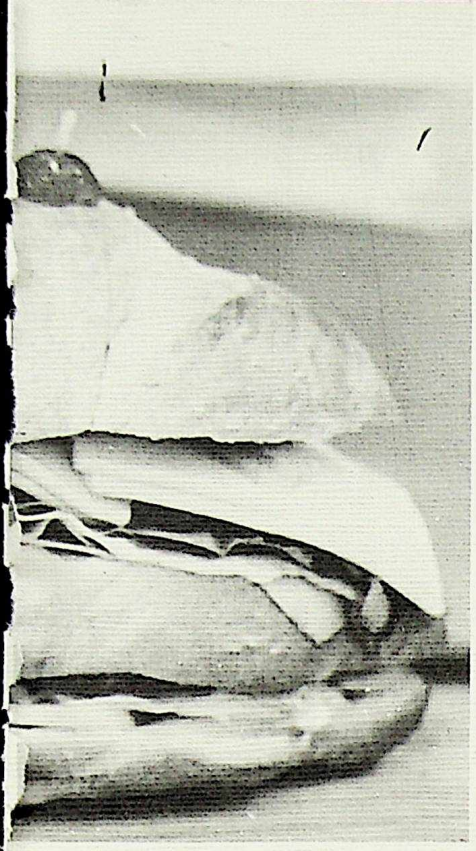


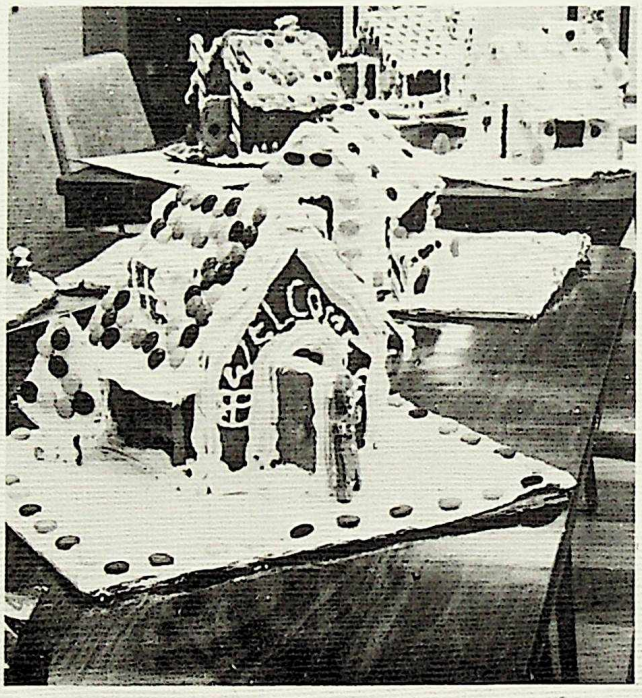


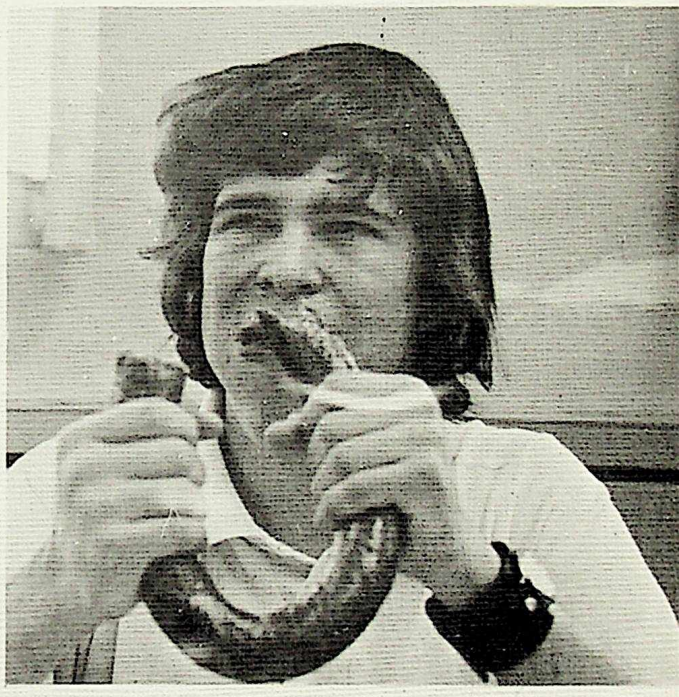
Eating is an activitiy anyone can take part in. The past year was highlighted by a Kobasa Eating Contest, won by Mike Mazepa. The Boys' Cake Baking Contest, in connection with Sadie Hawkins' Day, showed who our best up - and - coming chefs were (Best Decorated — Glenn Davis; Best Tastings — Harold Nikolaj).

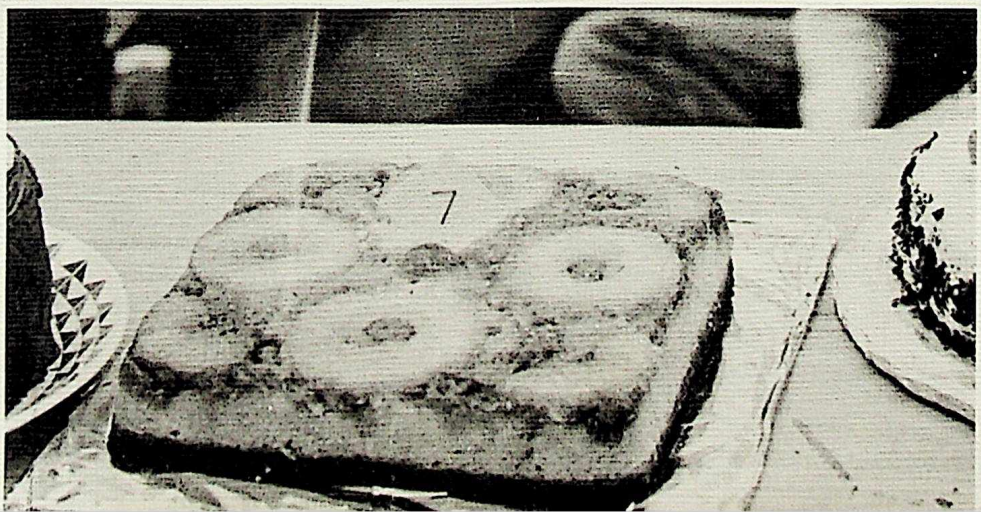




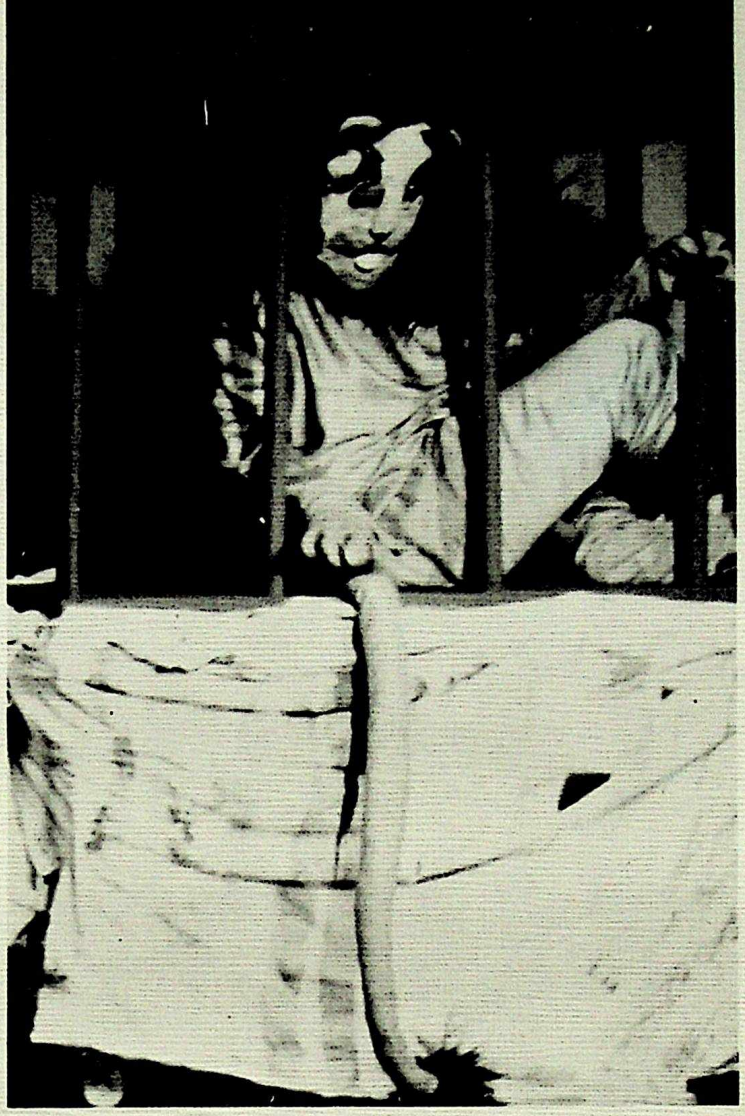


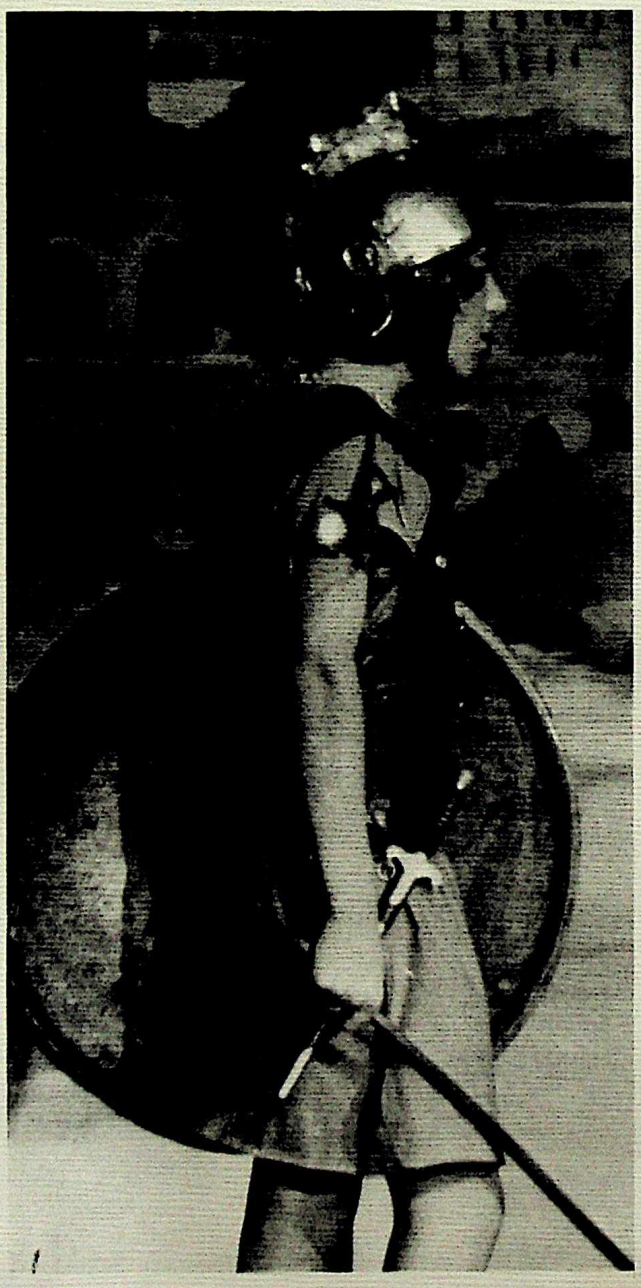


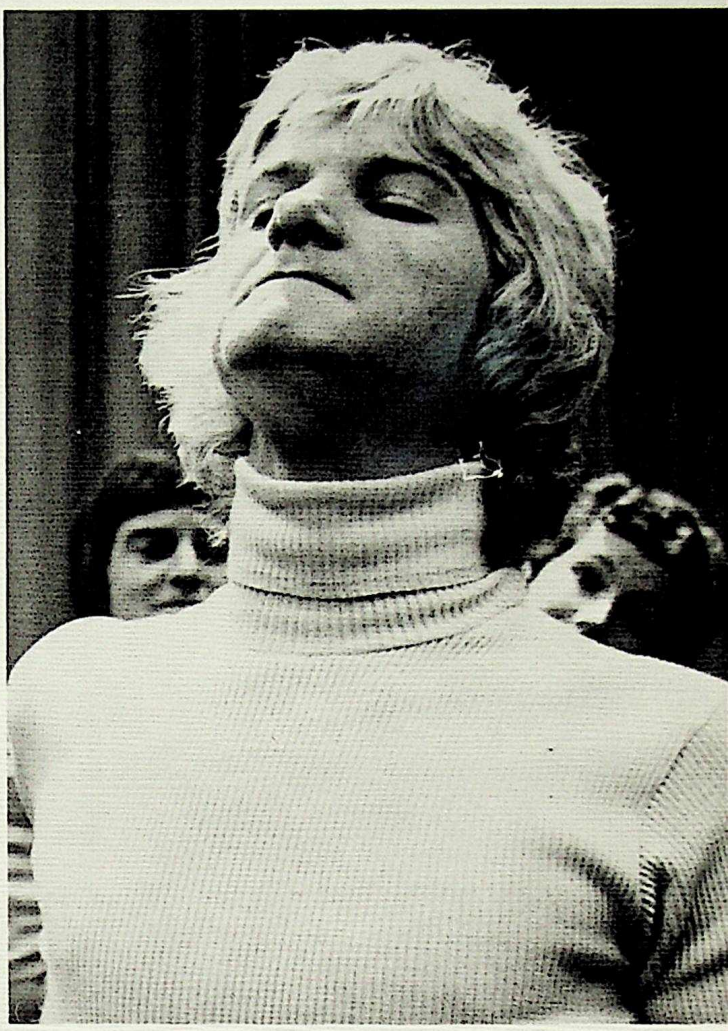




DRAMA CLUB



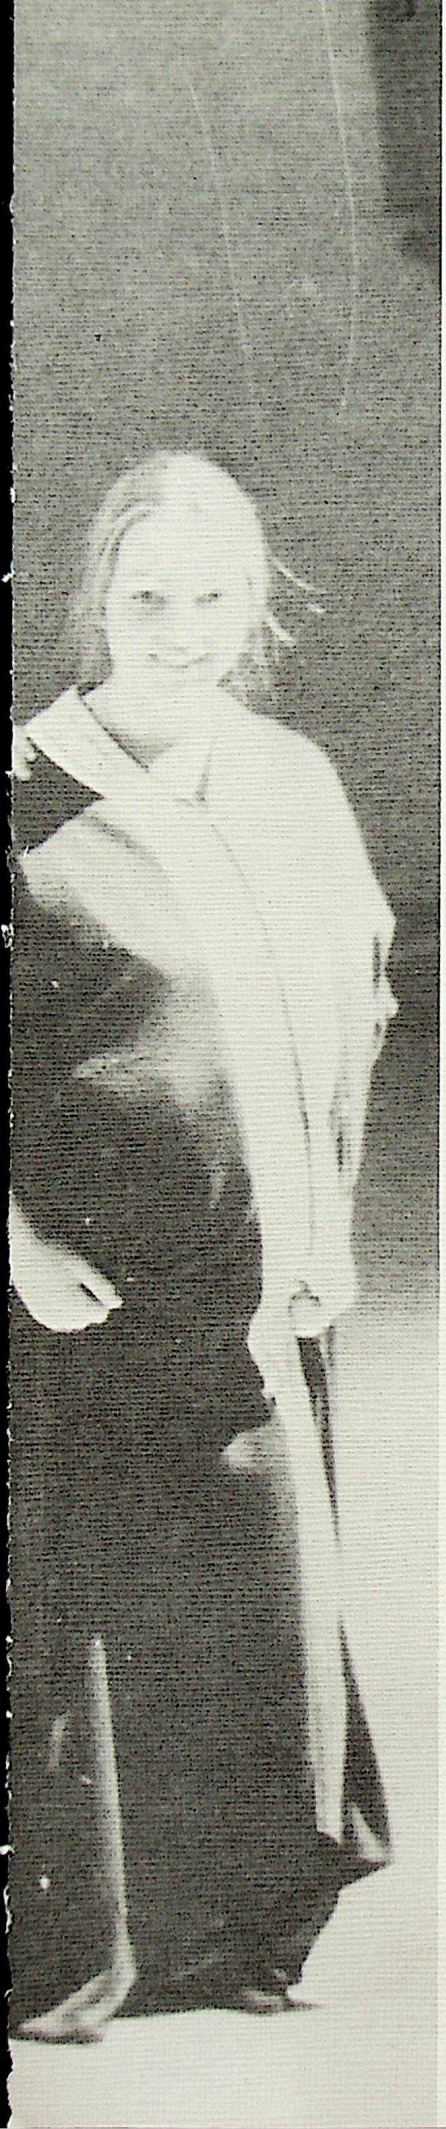




The Drama Club, under the terrific direction of Mrs. Berry, excelled this year in its fine production of three major plays, the first of which was the thrilling Perils of Pearl; with that dastardly villain Snidely in the lead. The second presentation saw the club gain technical experience by helping with Drama Twenty class project, the classic Androcles and the Lion. Their last play, Jump, was entered in the One-Act Play Festival at Victoria Composite High School. The acting was superb in all productions and thoroughly enjoyed by the capacity audiences.

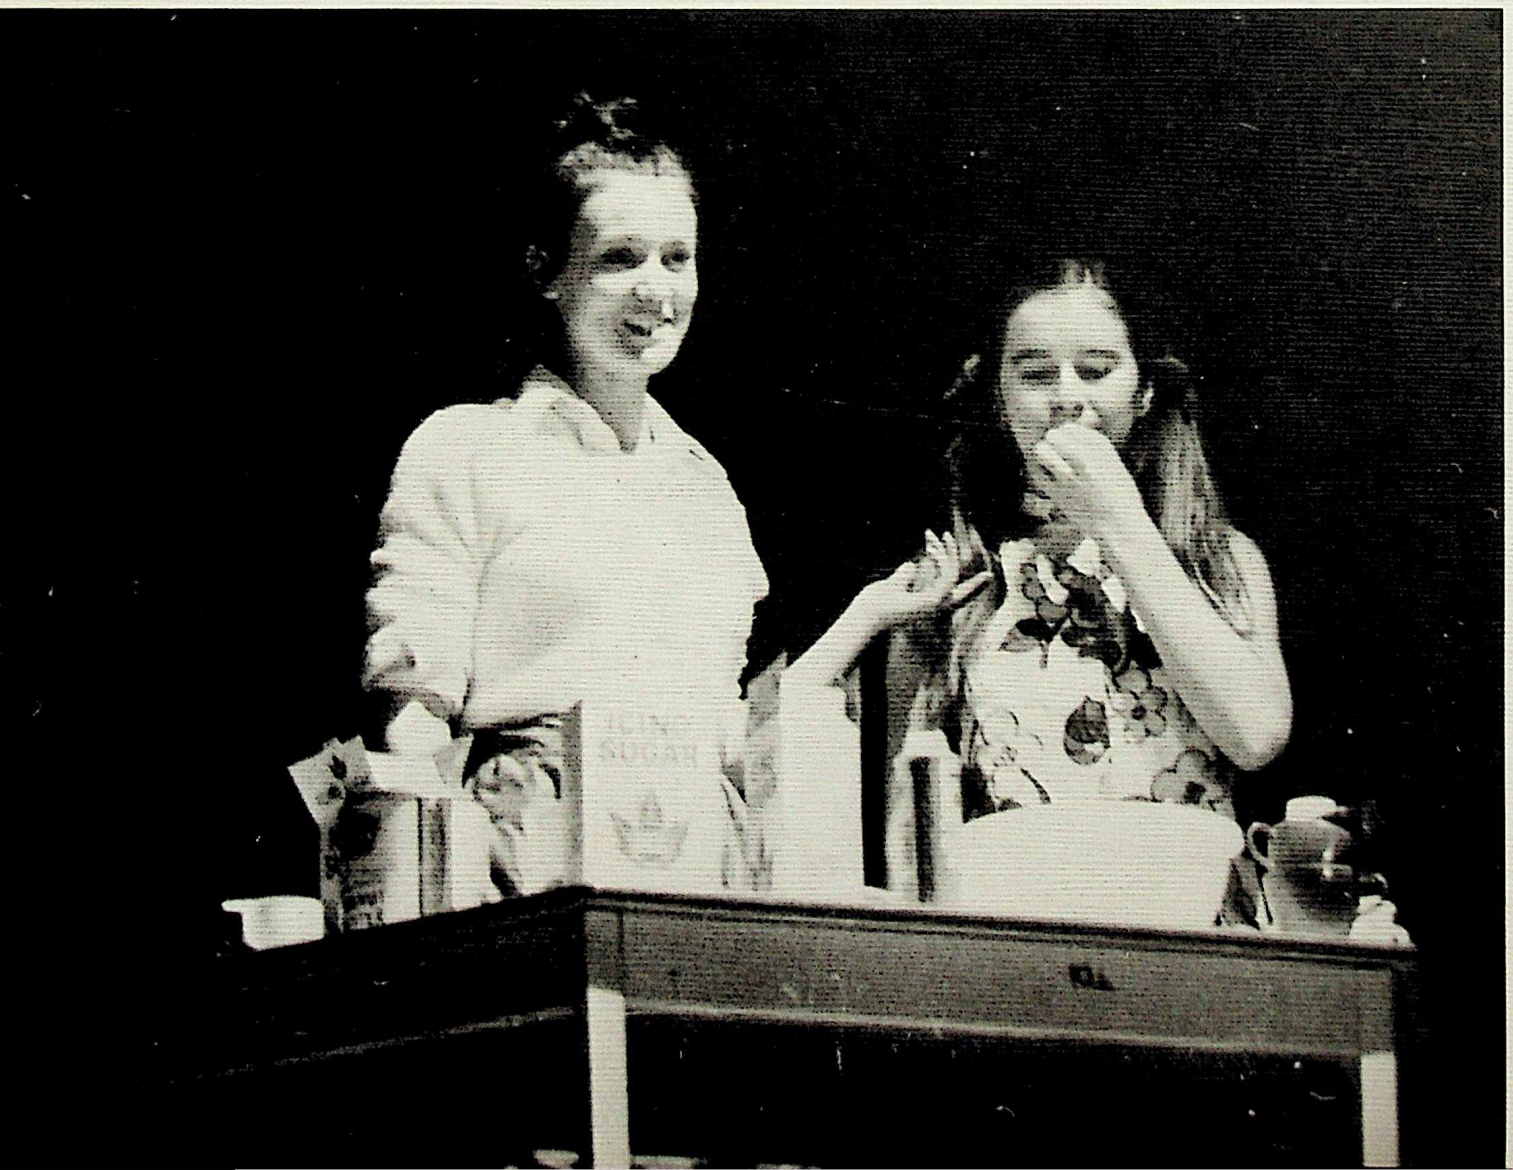
Christmas Lit

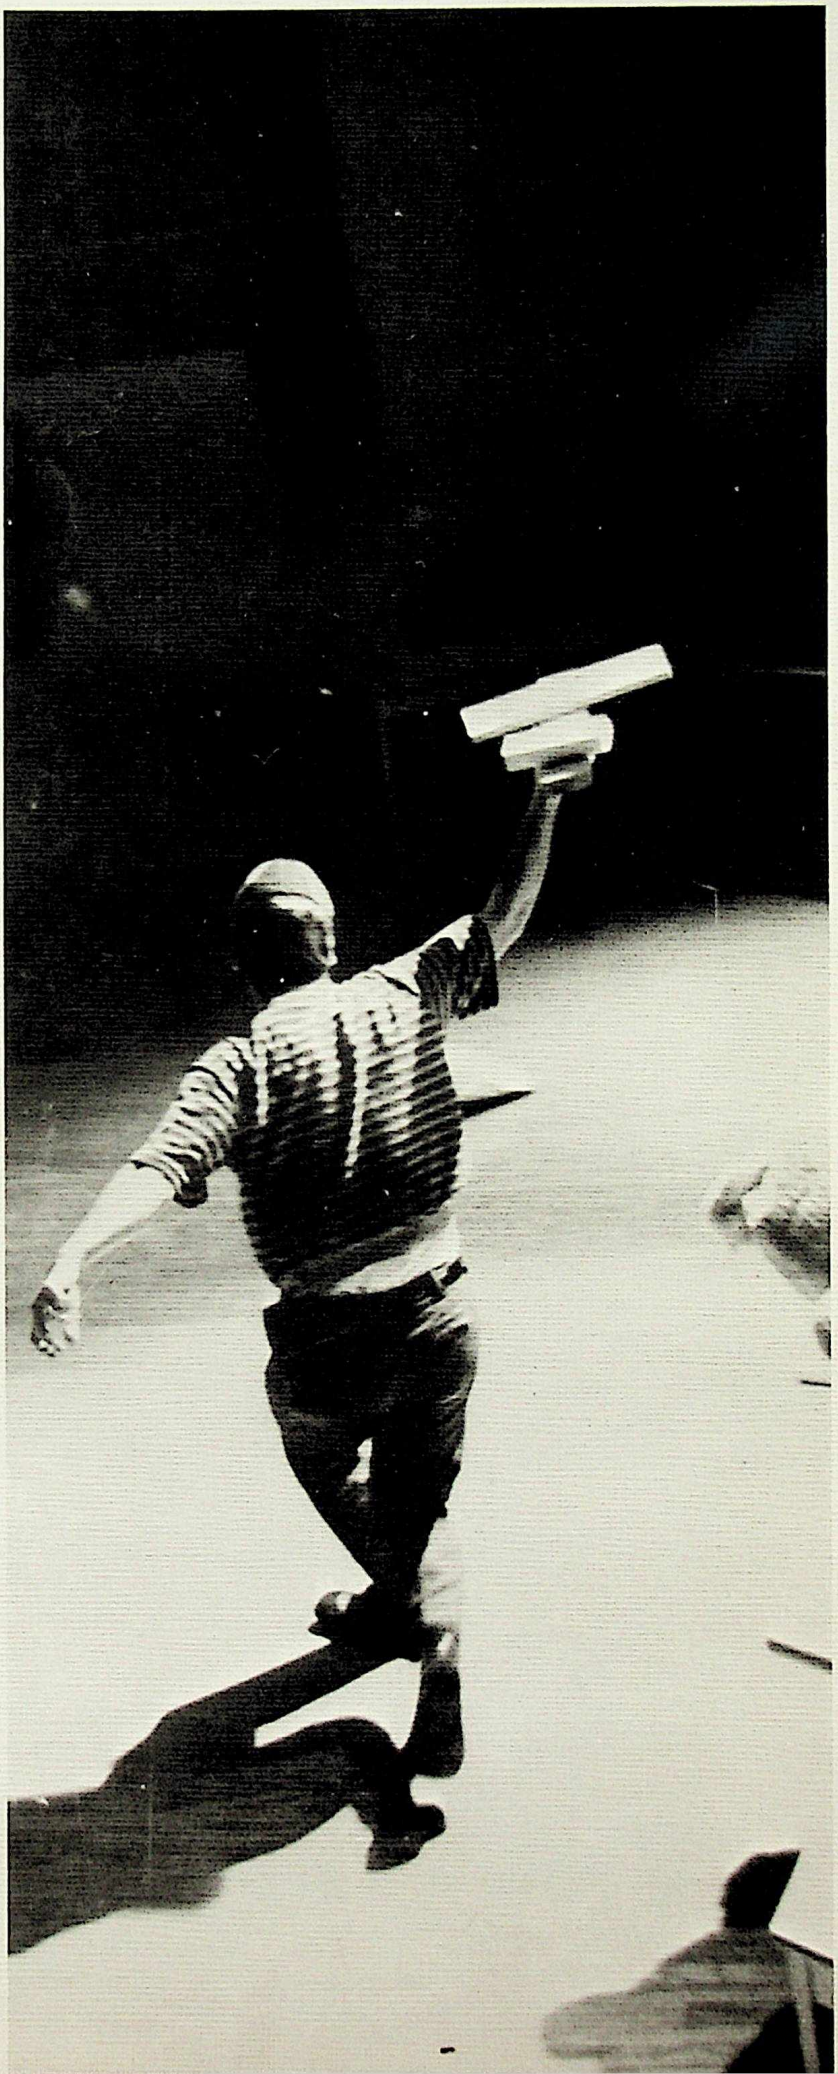
The annual Christmas lit provided an excellent chance to exploit originality and humor. Highlights included two interpretations of "The Twelve Days of Christmas", one done by the drama club, and the other by a group of teachers.



DELL?

Santa was in attendance, as were some displaced cheerleaders. The program was enjoyed by all, and brought the first half of the year to a suitable close.





DEBATING CLUB

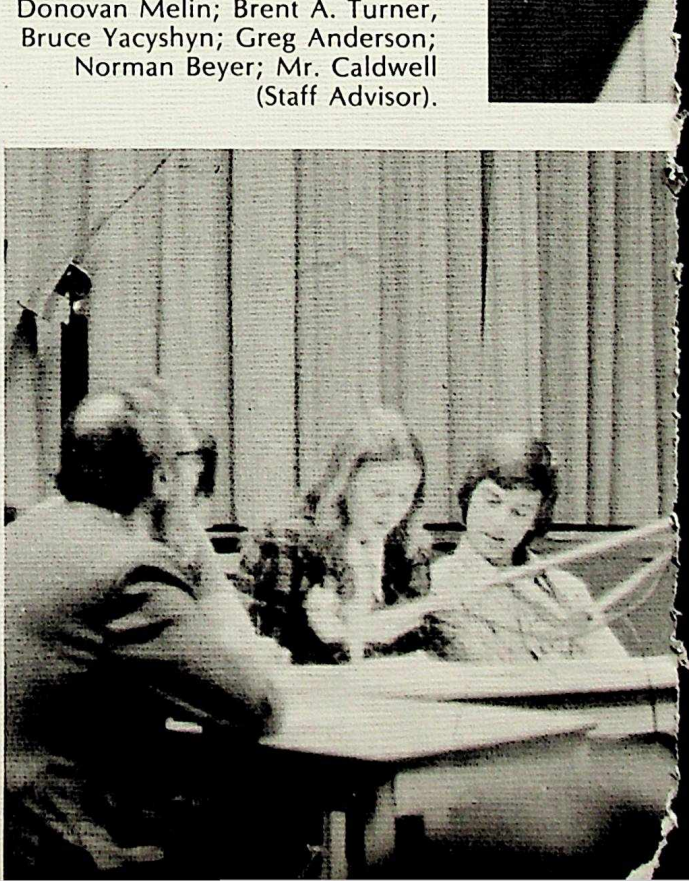
Top McNally debaters for the year were Richard Rogerson and Jennifer Head. Strong performances were also registered by Brent Thomas, Curt Smith, Bruce Yacyshyn, Donovan Melin and Jim Steer.

The trophy for the top McNally debater this year was won by Richard Rogerson.



During the last four years, McNally has established itself as the top debating school in Alberta with a host of championship wins throughout the province. Competition is quite extensive amongst the more than 1300 students from 110 junior and senior high schools in this year long program organized by the Alberta Debate and Speech Association so our achievements are noteworthy. The benefits to the more than fifty students from McNally who have taken part in the program during the last four years go beyond tournament success. Skills in speaking, research, listening, writing and logical thinking will be lasting benefits. The travel and social experience is second - to - none in the extra-curricular field since all participants have an opportunity to travel internationally and throughout Canada at least once at low cost during three years at high school.

McNally debaters completed another season of top-class debating by winning the 1974 CFRN TV Debate Championship for 1974.

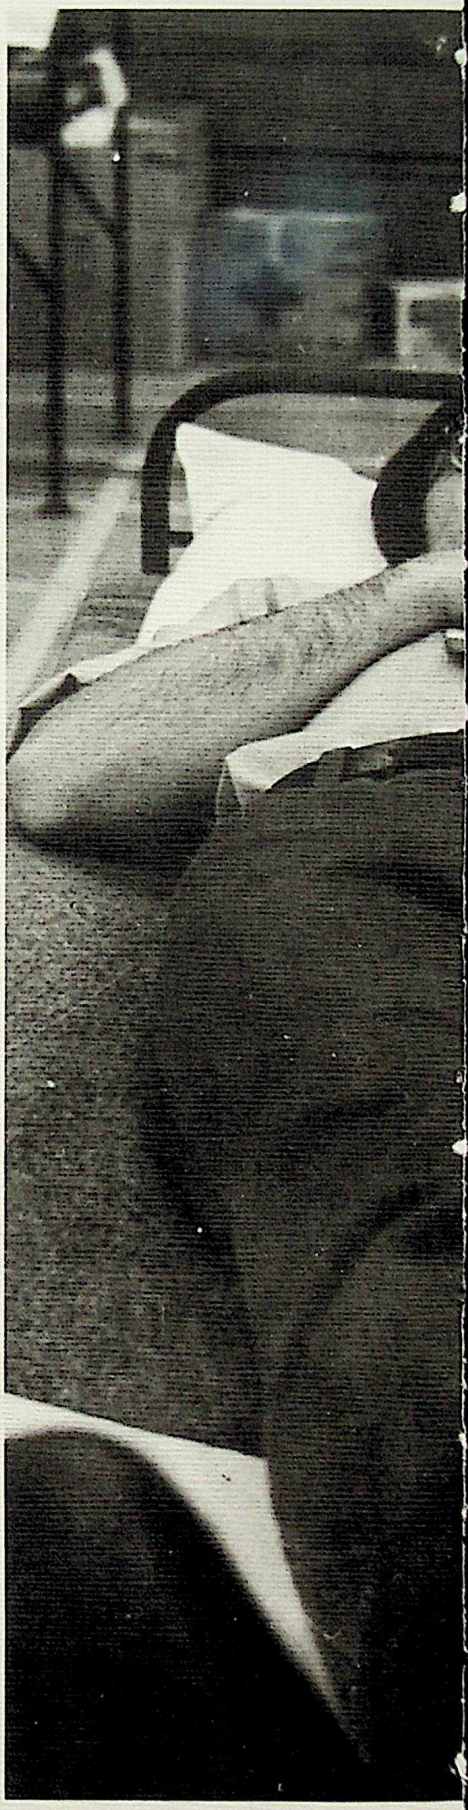
Jennifer Head and Richard Rogerson went undefeated through the six months of TV competition amongst 24 Northern Alberta schools to register McNally's first success in a television series.

TOURNAMENT SUCCESSES 73-74

The following is the record of success for 1973-74 by the fourteen member McNally squad:

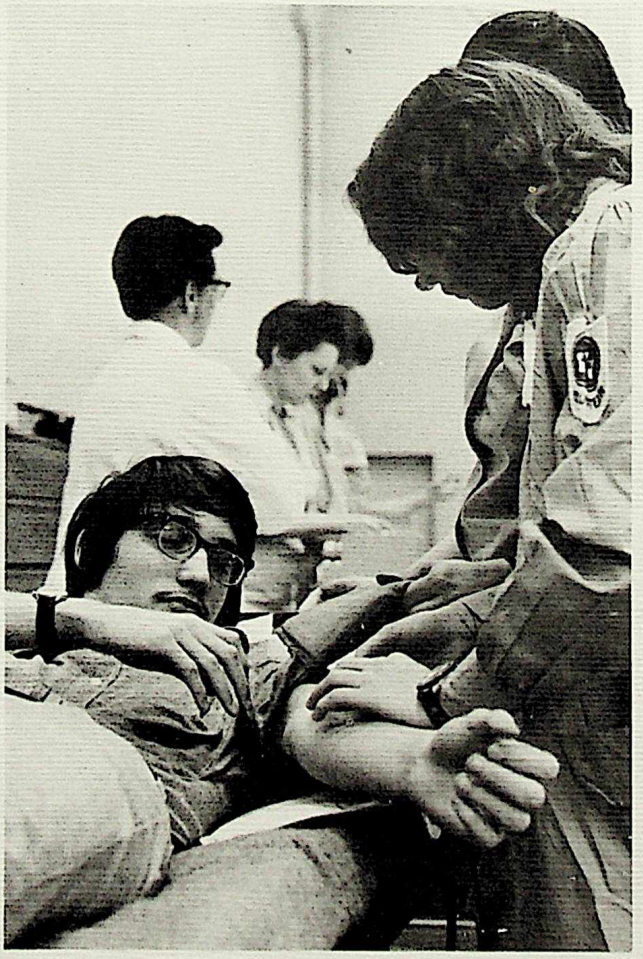
First Harry Ainlay Invitational Debates
First St. Francis Xavier Debates (Novice Section)
First Louis St. Laurent Invitational (Open Section)
First Edmonton Region Championships (Open Section)
First CFRN TV Debate Championship
Third University of Alberta Open Championship
Third Alberta Open Championship

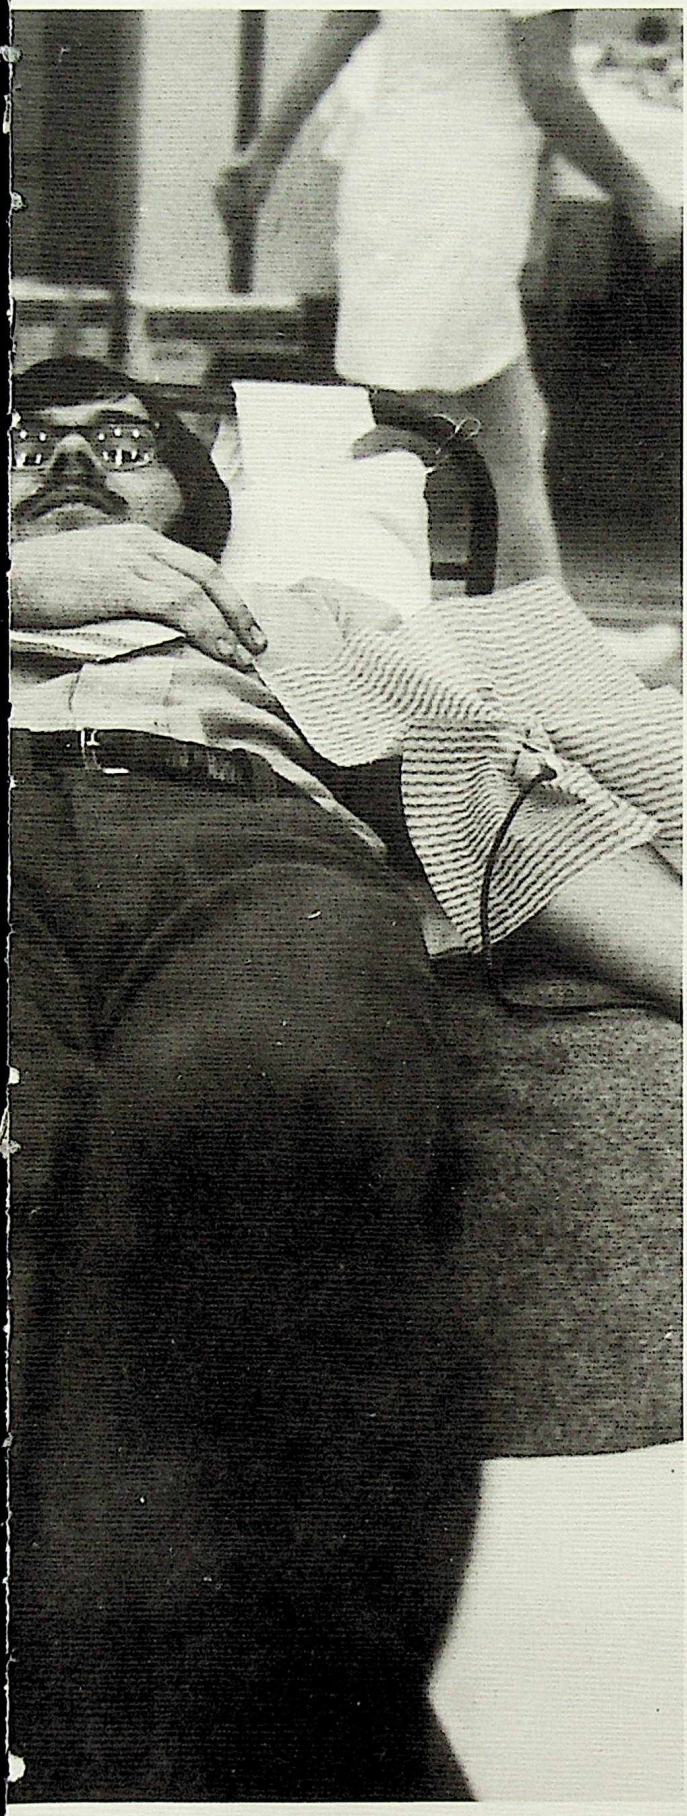
McNally students also participated in the CFRN Radio Debates (non-competitive) and travelled to Regina for the annual Alberta-Saskatchewan Debate Championship.

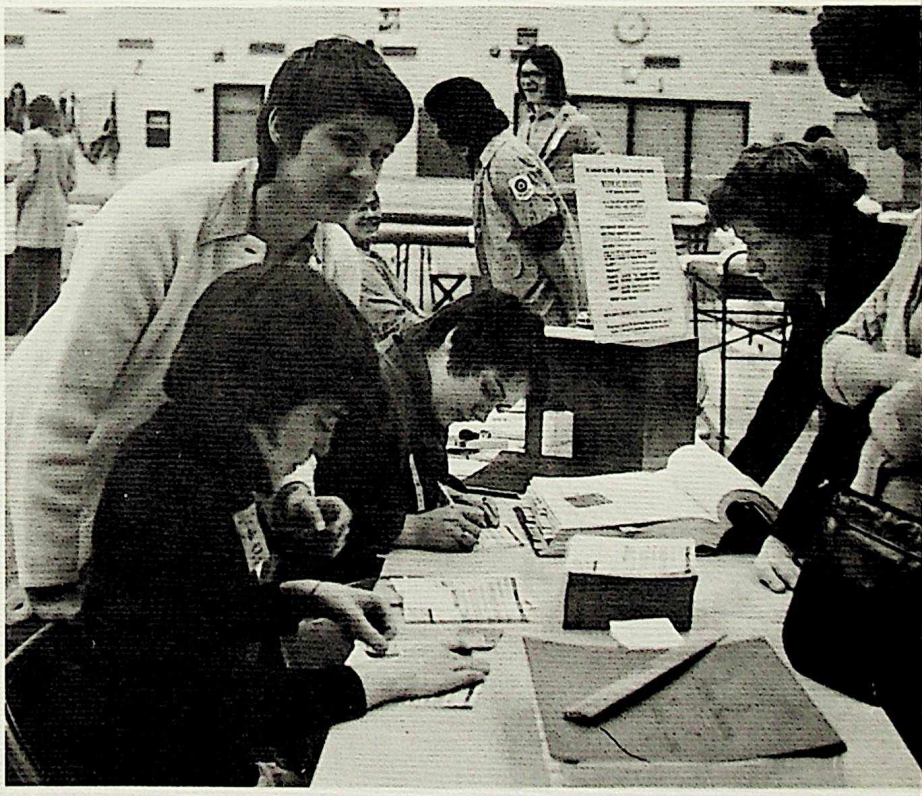


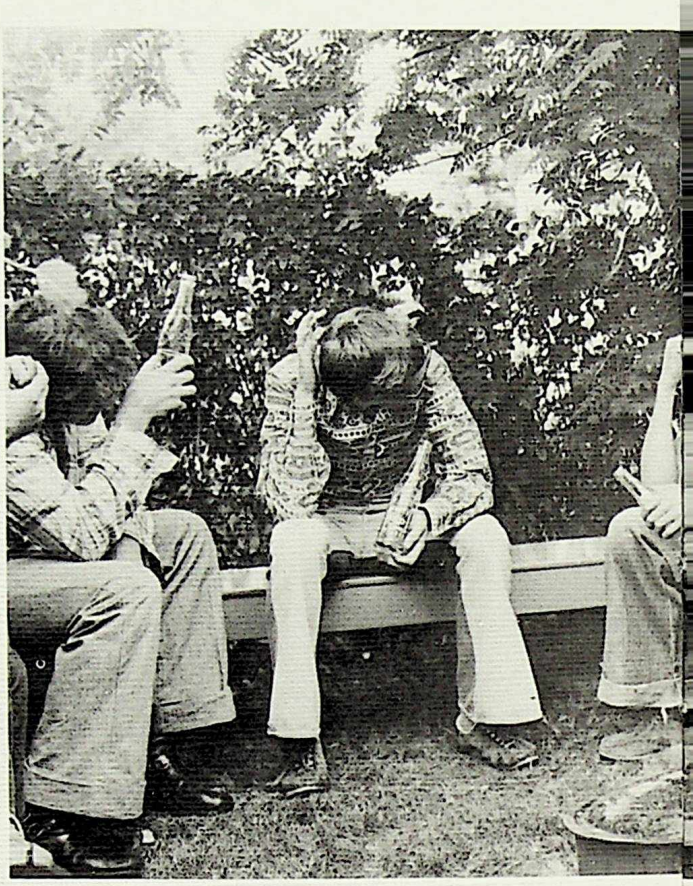
BLOOD DONOR CLINIC

Blood — essential to the life which we too often take for granted. The Blood Donor Clinic gives us the chance to give 'the gift of life' to the people who need it so much.









A year of enjoyment came to a delicious start by the Inter-School Christian Fellowship's corn roast. For the camping enthusiasts the "SWAMP RWAMP" came quickly. The year was packed full of discussion groups, guest speakers, and films which were enjoyed by Christians and non-Christians alike. The ever popular "travelling supper" and the annual "GARB-A-THON" held in store many delights. For the fortunate few who made it out to Pioneer Lodge at Sundre, Alberta, the memories will always be treasured. In all, a full year to be remembered by all in attendance.

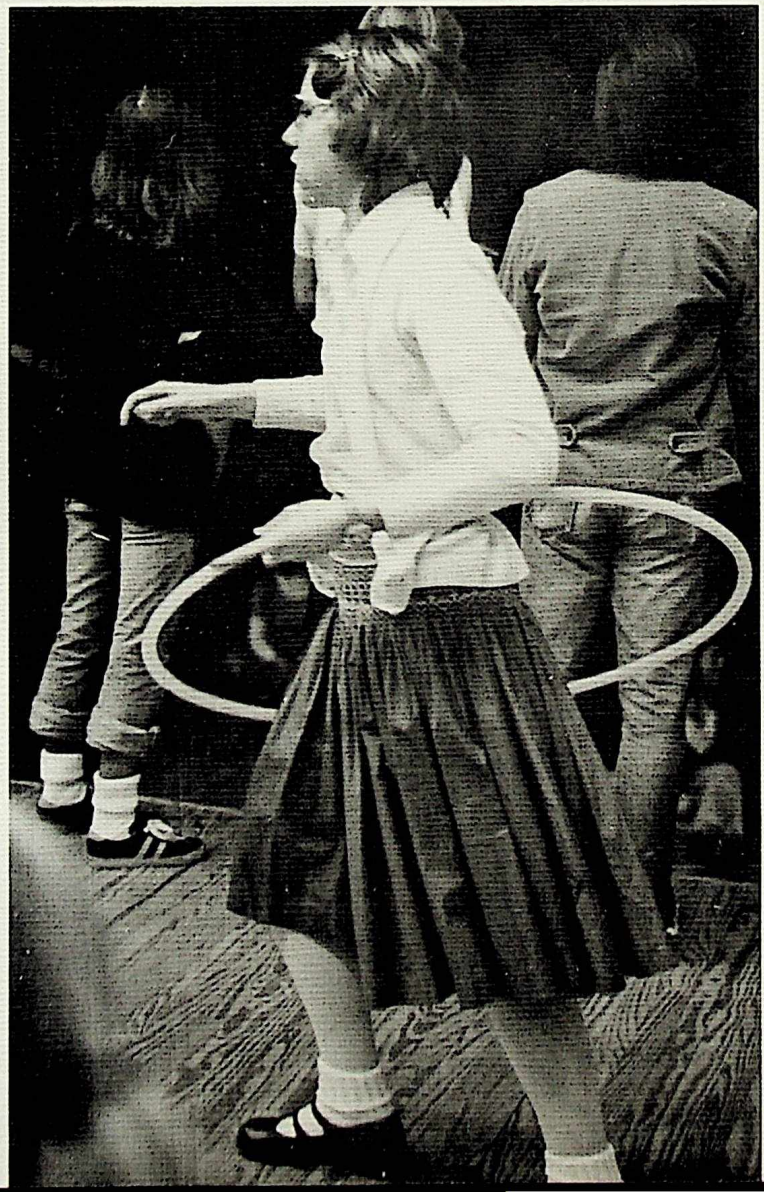
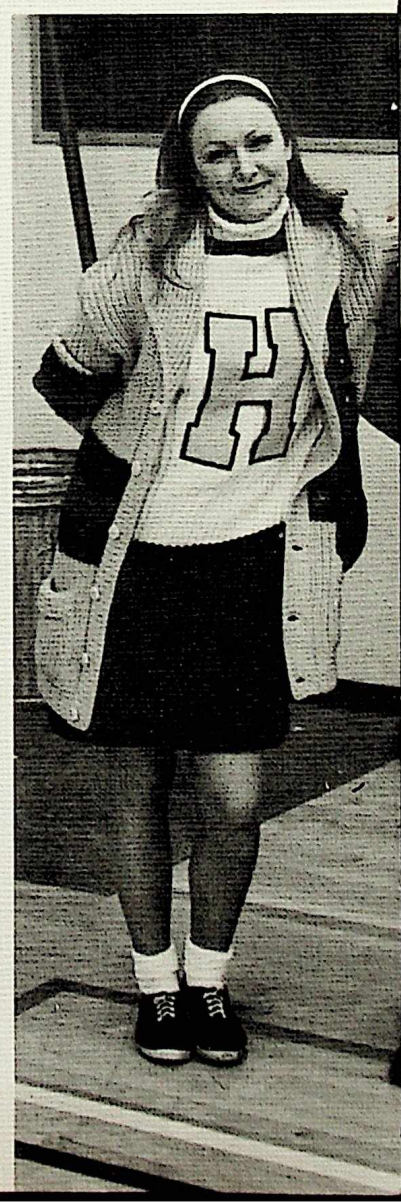
GREASE DAYS

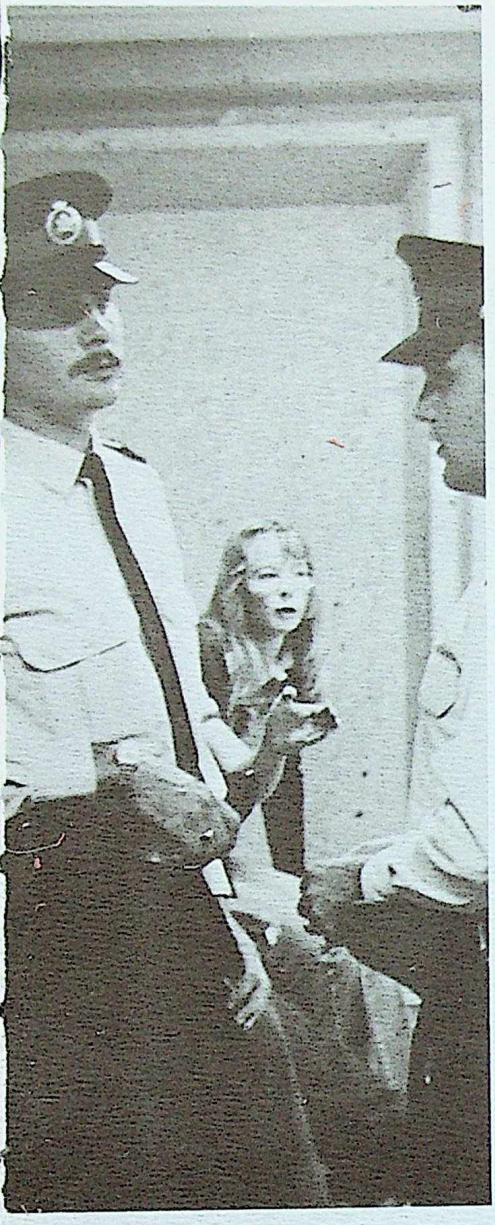
With the recent nostalgic return trips to the late 50's and the early 60's, McNally's Grease Days hit full force. The hoola hoopers whirled as the bubble gummer popped. The record for bubble gum chewing is held by Jeff Fitzner with 49 pieces, but unfortunately he was unable to comment on his technique.

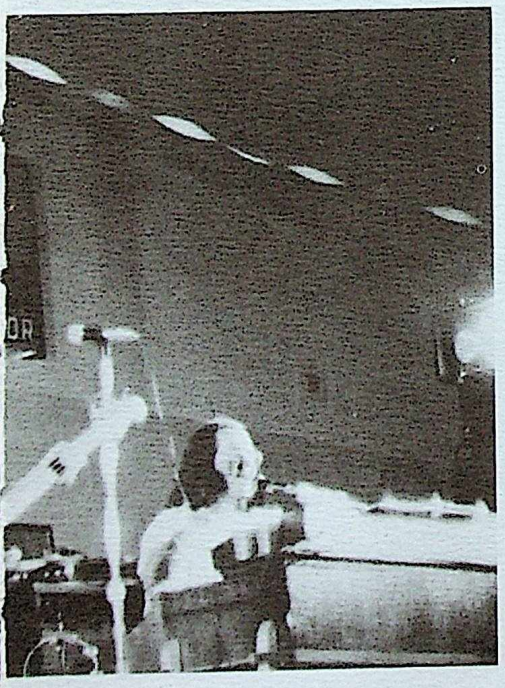


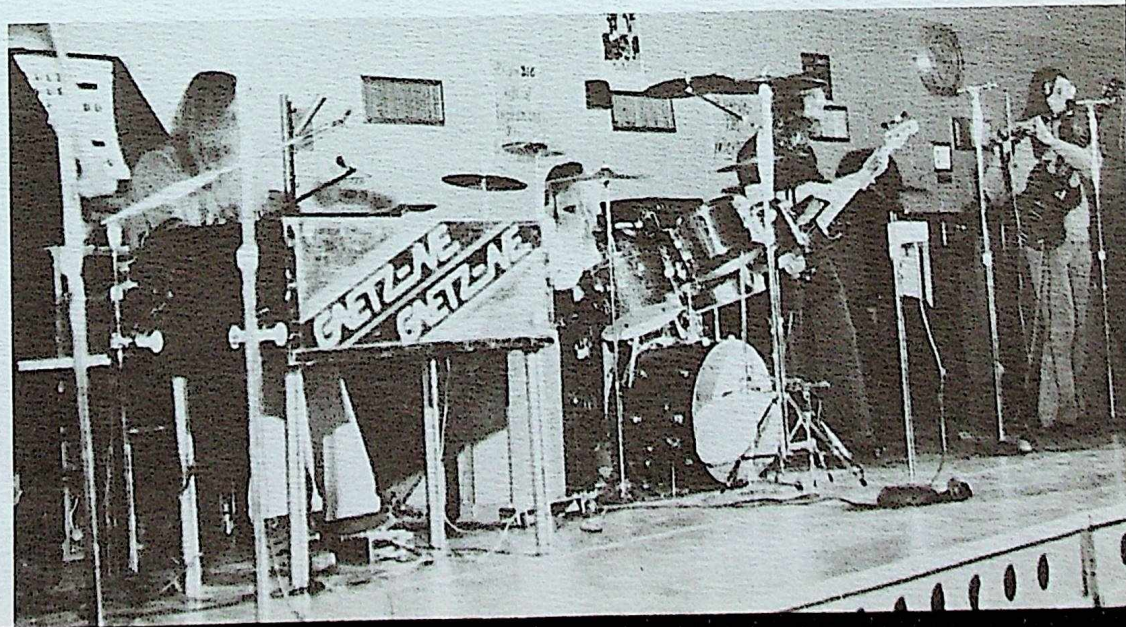


Remember the grease all over? How about the girls' hairstyles and beautiful skirts? The guys are still trying to forget, but heads and socks keep on bobbing.

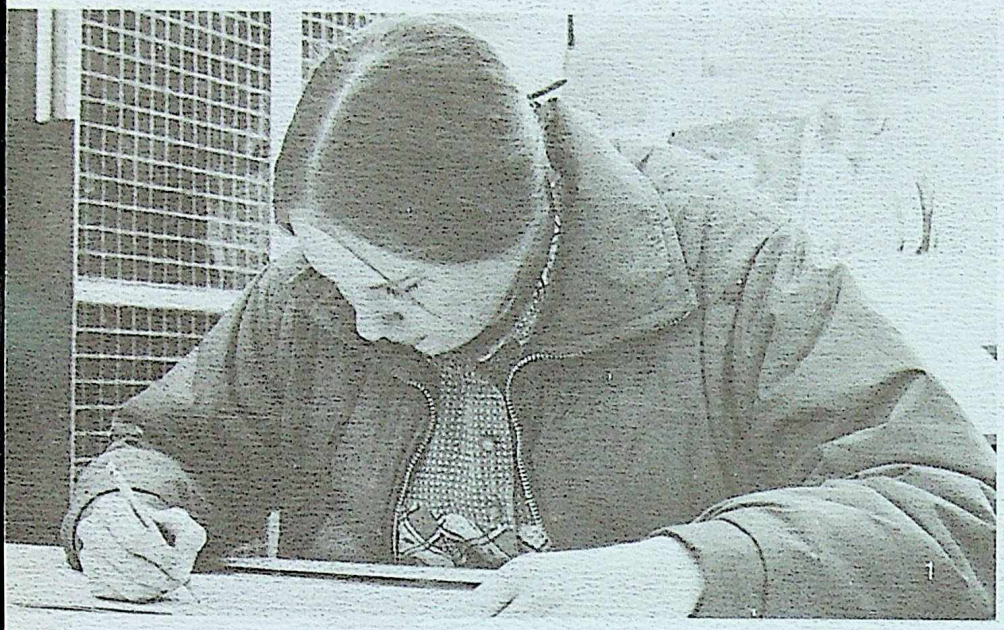
Starting with the annual Frosh Dance, McNally rocked itself through four successive dances, including the very popular Grease Dance. The ever present policemen are always ready to tell a joke or give someone a friendly handout of the school. However, school dances weren't the only form of self-expression, with all the Phys Ed classes learning how to waltz and foxtrot in social dance.

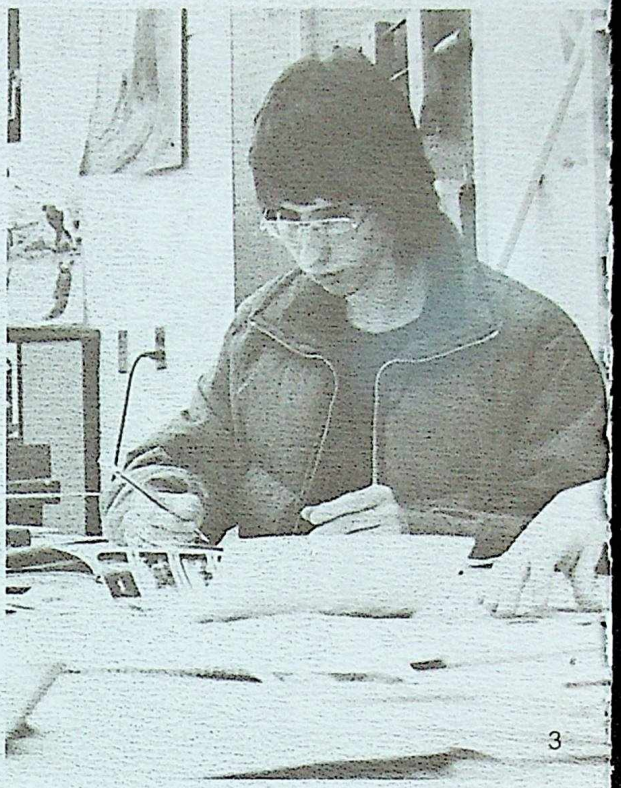


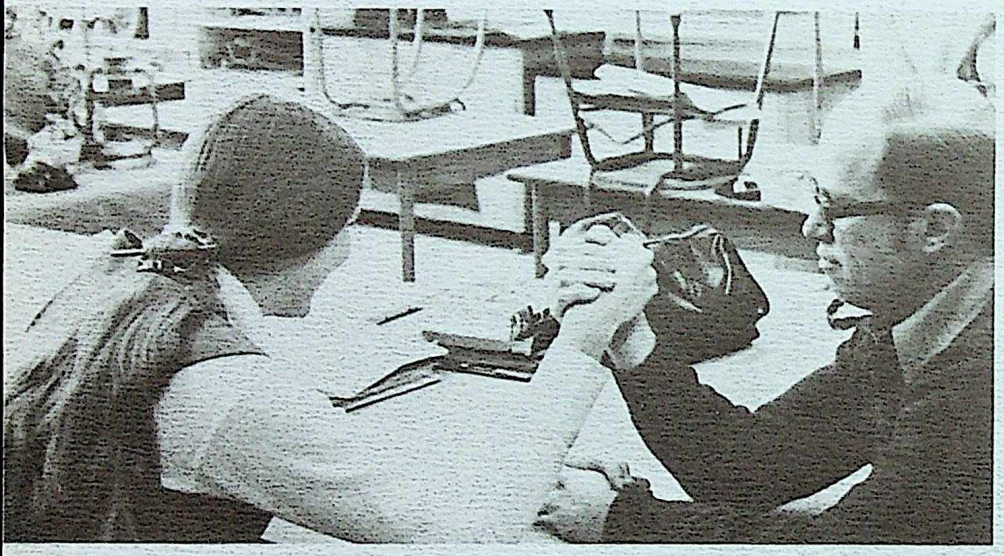


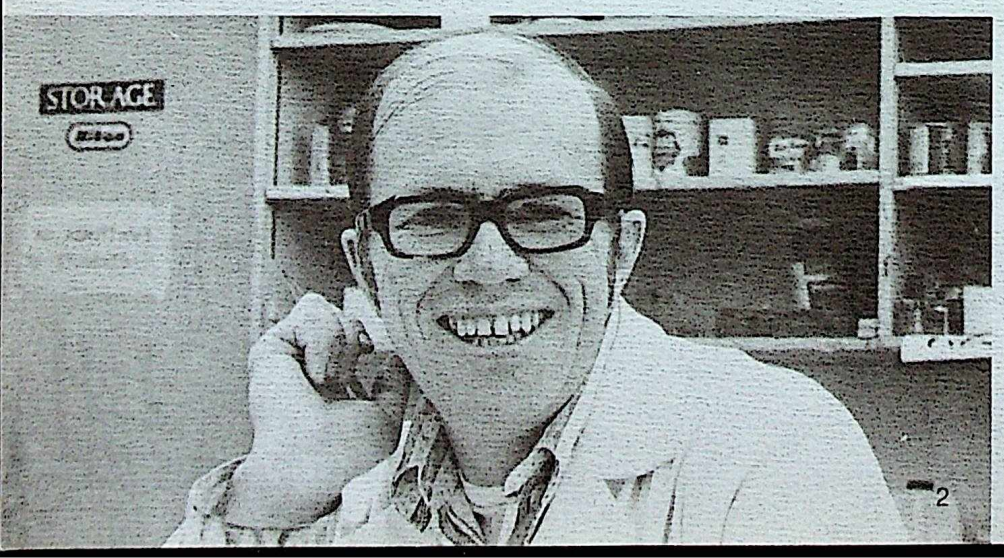


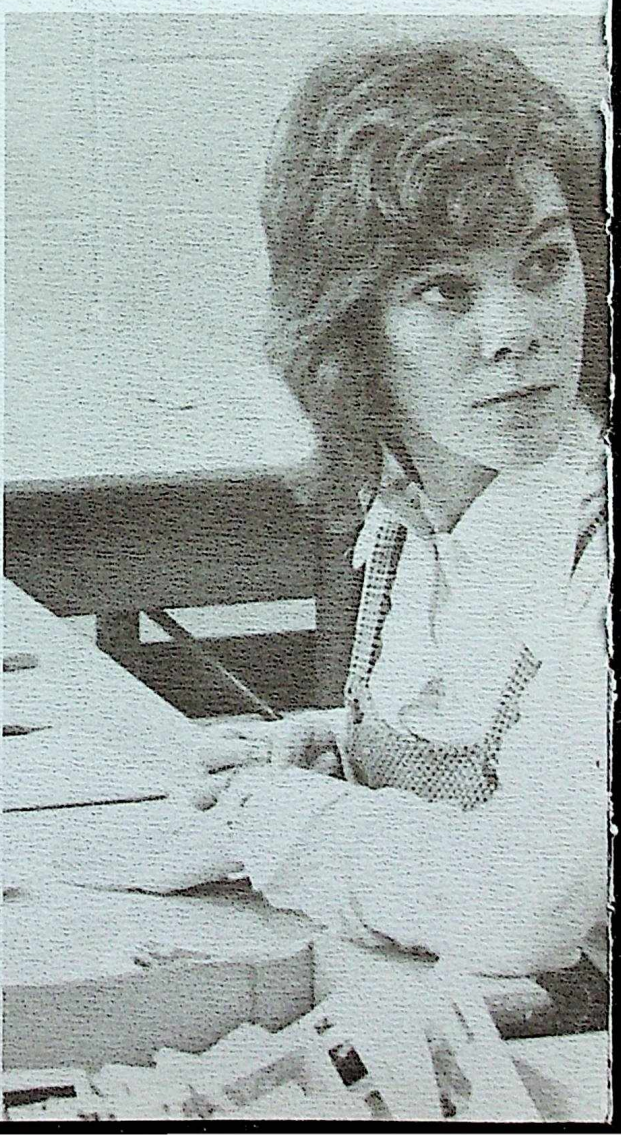
YEARBOOK CLUB

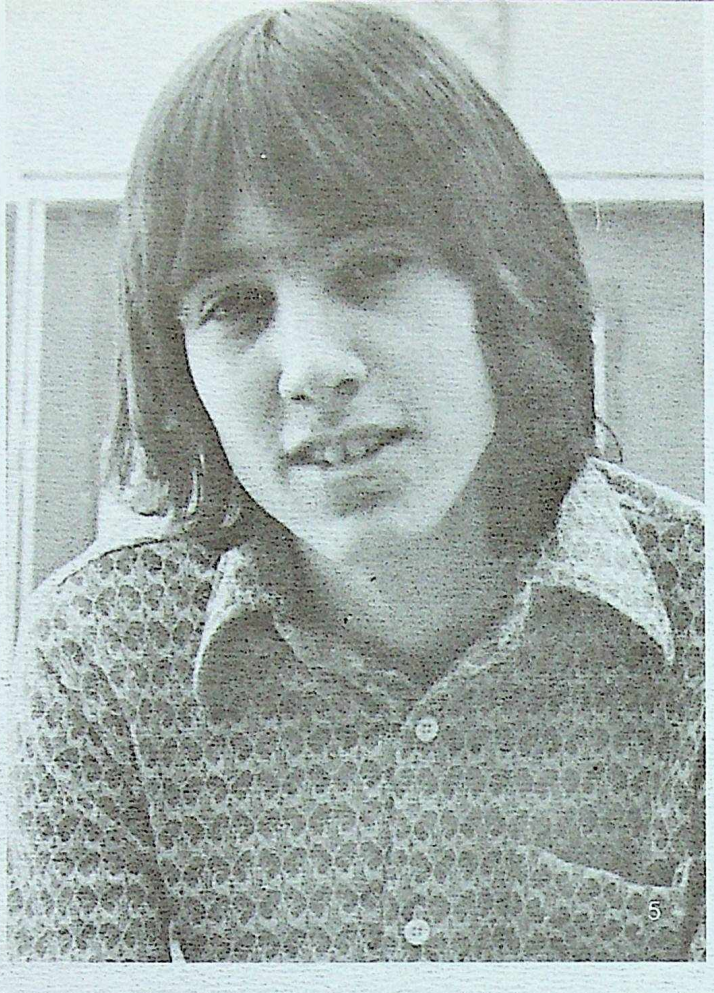


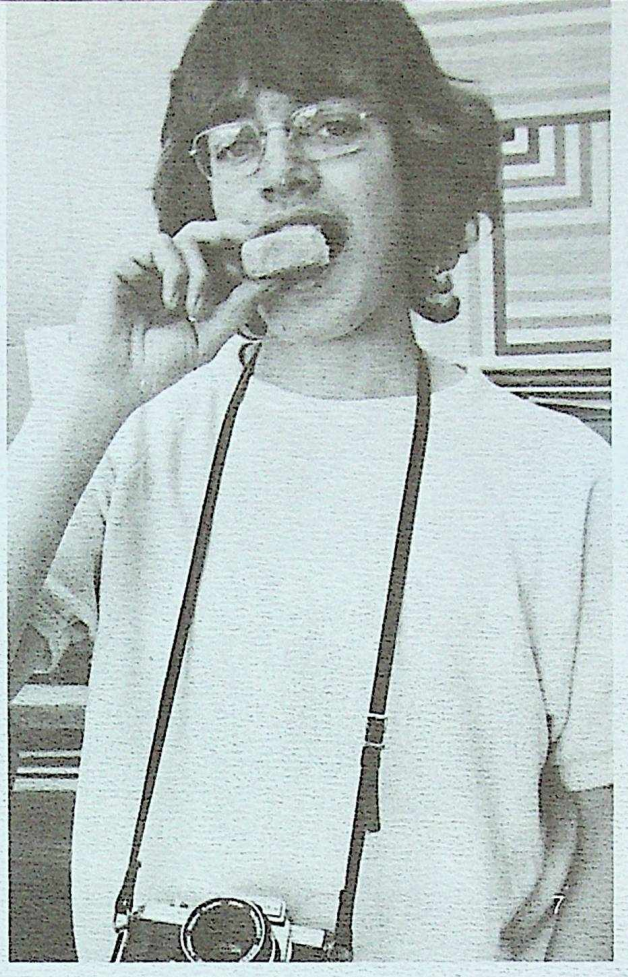


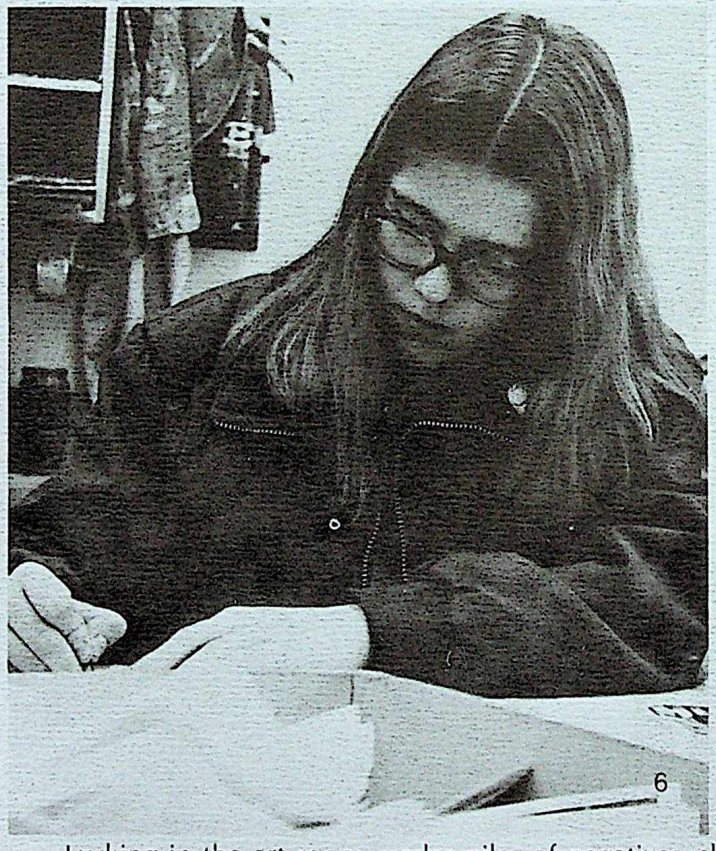




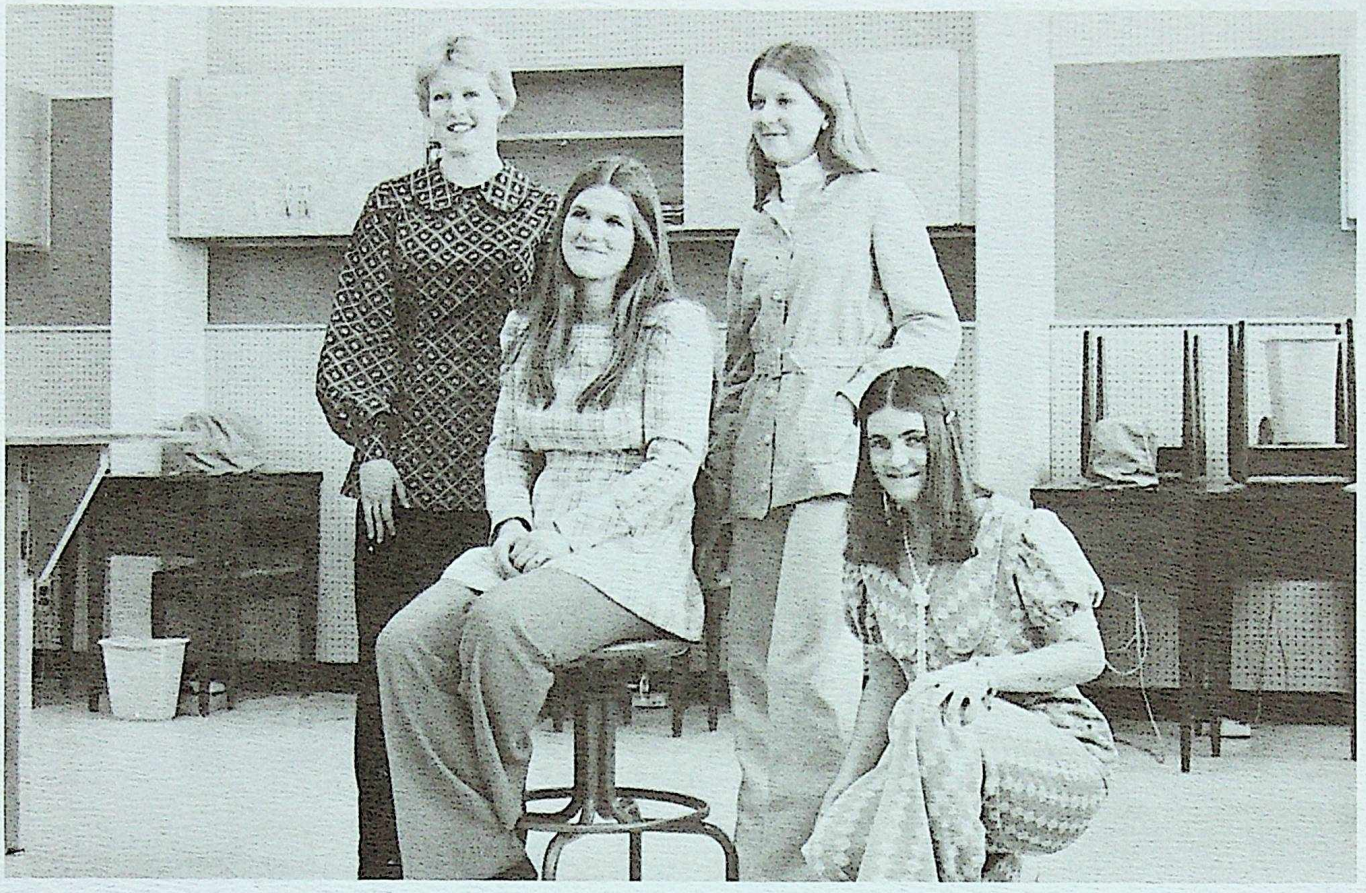


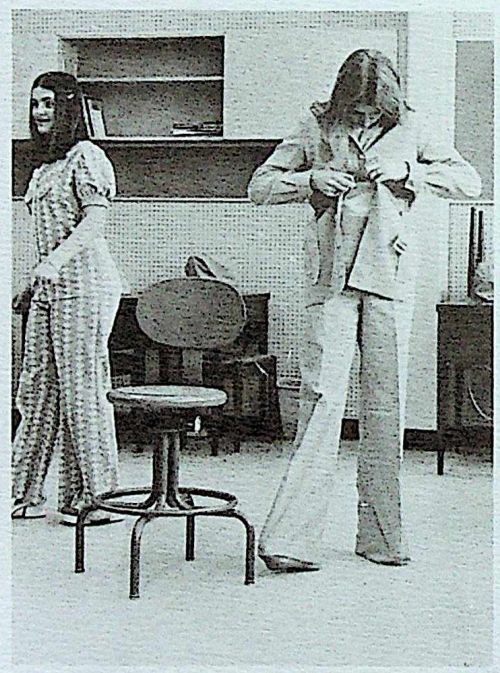


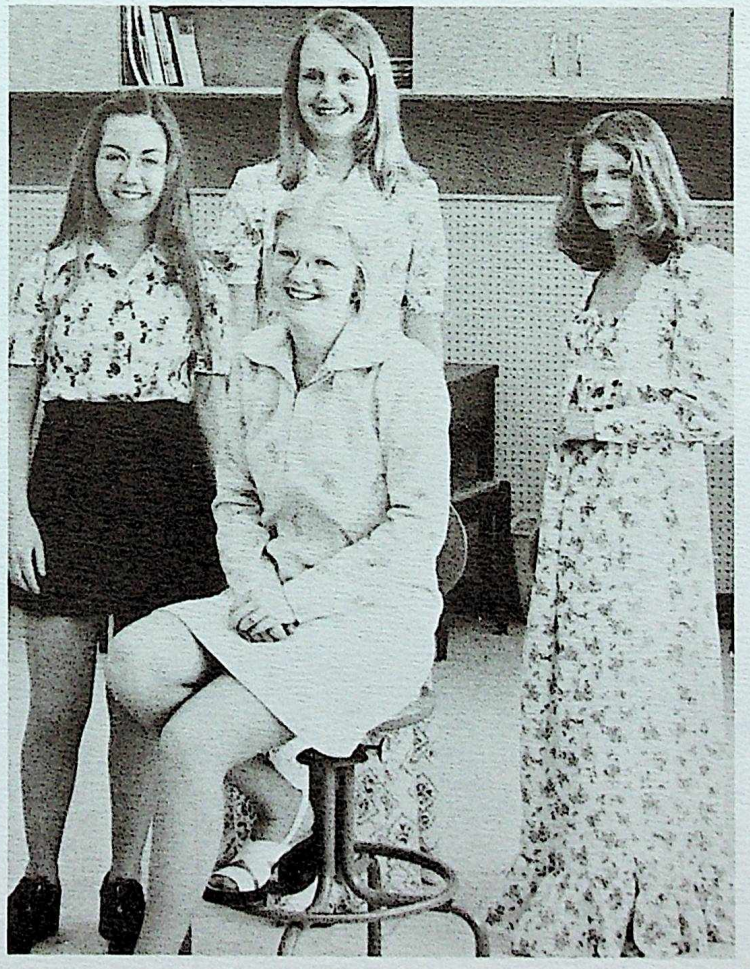




Lurking in the art room, under piles of negatives, sheaves of copy and script, and mountains of pictures, worked the TREND staff. Led by Gregg Johnson, this busy group of dedicated people, contributed much time and effort to bring you the best McNally yearbook . . . since 1973. Familiar faces found working in the art room are: (1) Delphia Cleveland; (2) Mr. Johnson; (3) Mike Massena; (4) Becky Cowdery; (5) Charles Evans; (6) Heather Rowland; (7) Gordon McLeod; (8) Carolyn Harrison. Other helpers that gave some of their time to the yearbook are: Anne Baynes; Lois Derman; Chris Gibbs; Norman Goddard; Brian Shearer; Karen Spurrell, Alfred Wong.







Activities are not always regulated to clubs and sports; they also include the creation of fashions and art and literature.

These caricatures were done by Dean Lewis, an Art 30 student, and if you can't tell whom they portray, you must be new at McNally.
On the opposite page is a very fine portrait by Kim Wilson, Art 10.

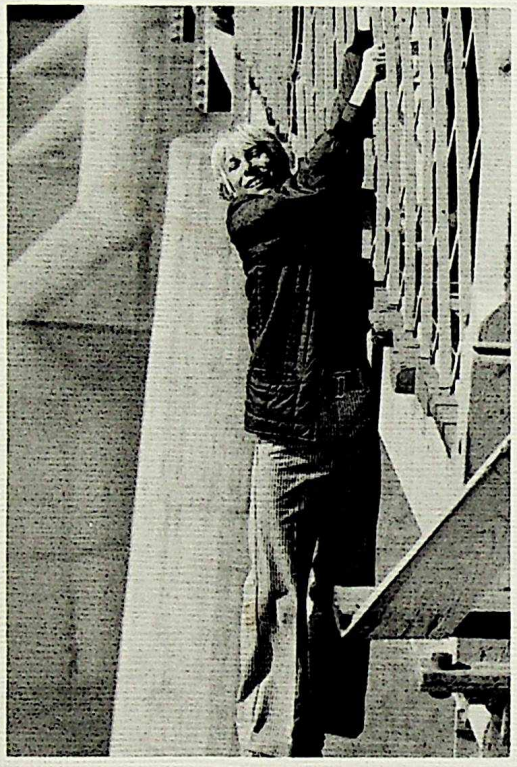
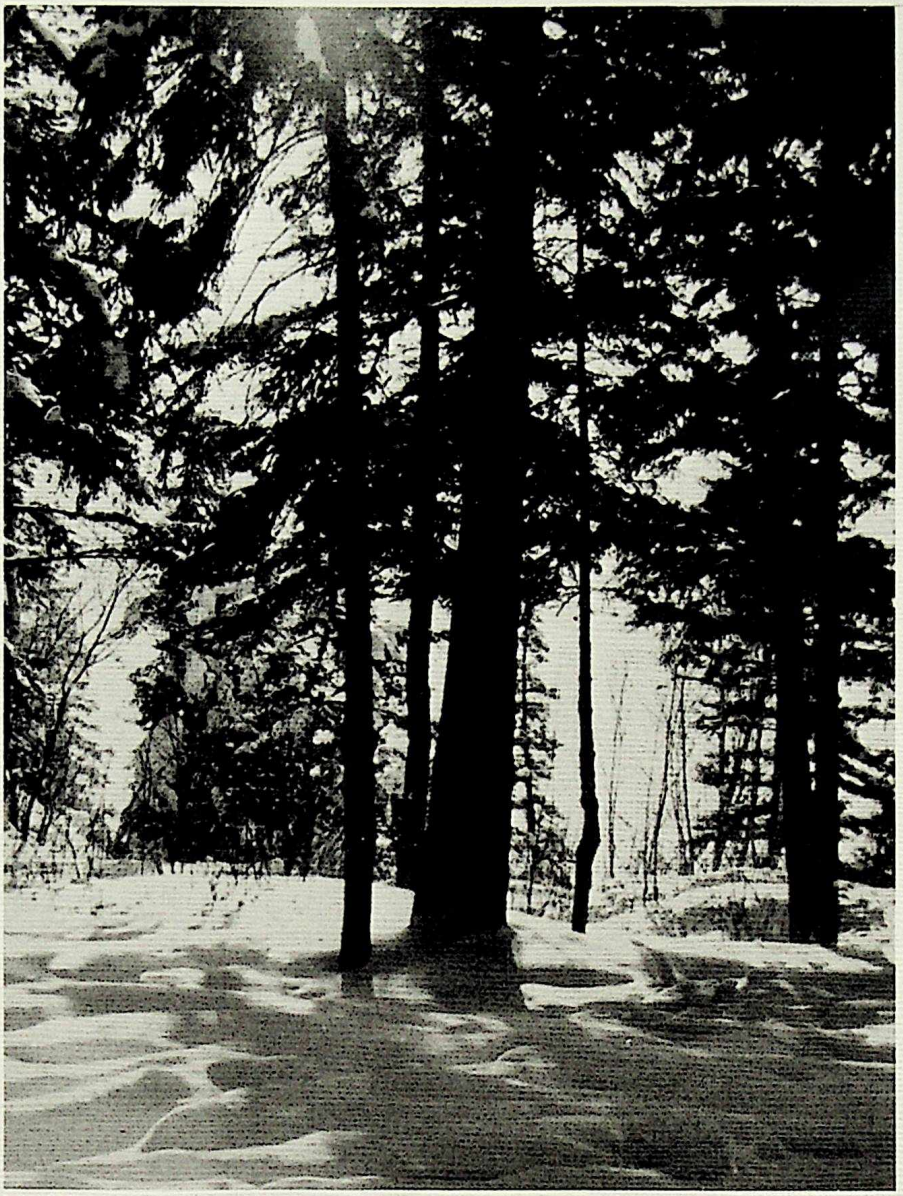
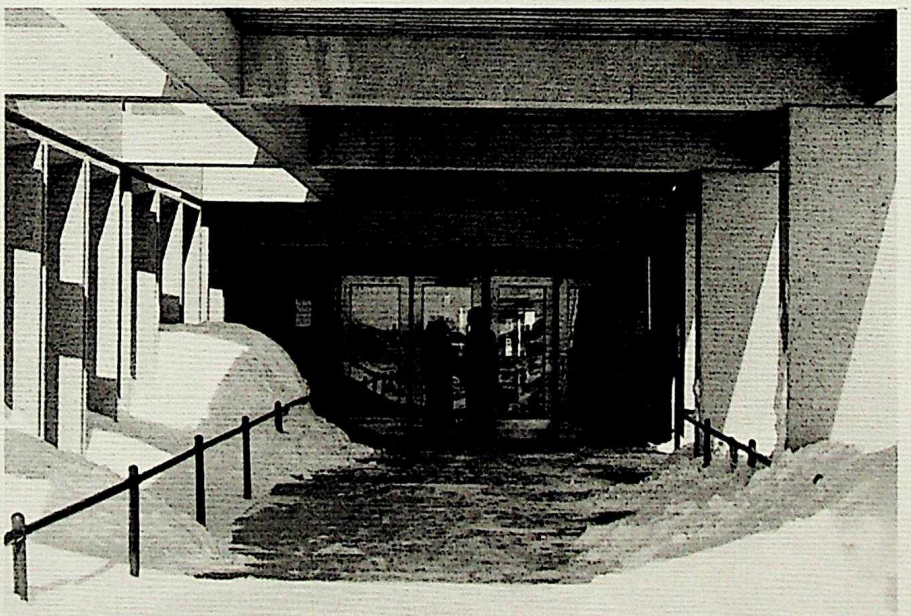
Carol Powers, Wendy Rasmusson, Joe Colborne and Gary Delainey expended much time and effort during the Easter holiday week in the Inter-High School Art Competition, sponsored by Westmount Shopper's Mall. Their paintings were judged and auctioned off, the proceeds $305.00 going to the Winnifred Stewart School for Retarded Children.







People closed behind their doors
What keeps their heads inside
They cherish things that fade with life
I sometimes wonder why
Mad scientists try to find a way
But destruction lies within their hands
Some man is driving his limousine while
Some man is in the cold without a lending hand.
People with their heads high see only Black and White,
Laughing at the sounds of things that could be so bright,
Their heads are heavy with the burden of the day
When the future will have no place to play
Caught in the winding circles, round and round.
Who has the strength to hold on to the ground.
Life is full of wondrous things, just open your eyes.
We are the people, this is our plan, sing
About unity in harmony with the Land.

Jeanne Scoffield

The ocean breeze blows gently
Through your golden hair
Whispering lullabies
As you listen, sitting still.

You play your music on a flute
Upon a cliff so high
You're set upon a pedestal
Way above the sky.

You're surrounded in a world
Of images and dreams
Your love is for beauty
Which your crystal eyes have seen.

Linda deHaas

Lost in a world
With a million
Things to do
But such little time.
So the decision remains
On how I will spend
The rest of my life.
Either with what most People say is right
Or my greatest need
Of being free.
But still confusion
Dwells within of
What I will find or
What I'll leave behind.

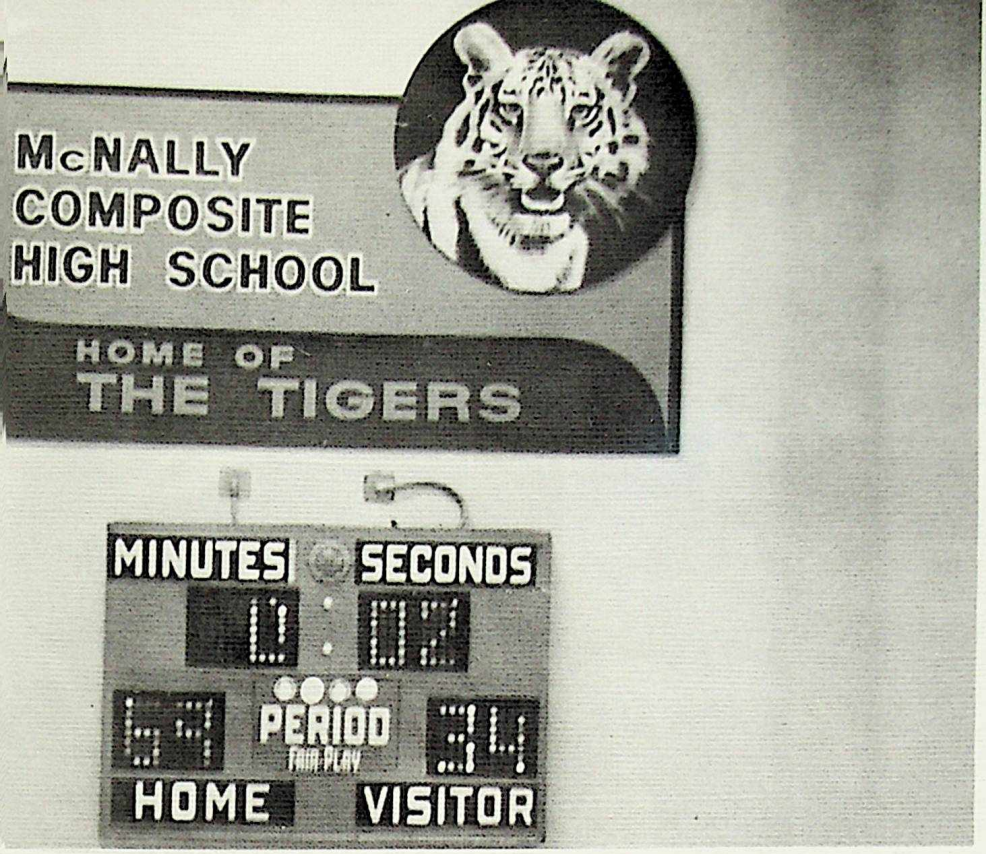
As the yearbook was going to press, the Senior Class Council was busily involved in planning Grad '74. Scheduled for May 25, A New World Coming will surely be a success because of the hardwork and sheer determination of those who spent so much time planning it. In conjunction with McNally's annual Open House, the Council also ran a Tea and Bake Sale based on a Caribbean Cruise.



SENIOR CLASS COUNCIL

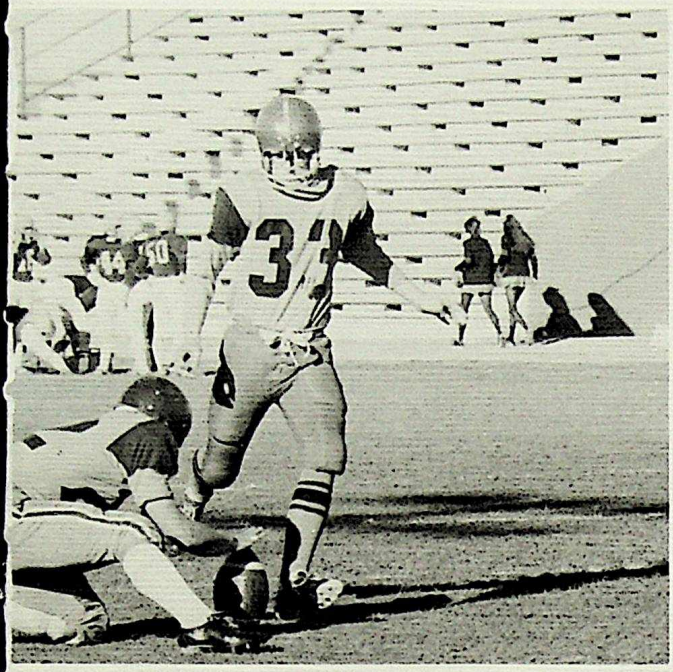
SENIOR FOOTBALL



Although everyone predicted McNally's 74 season to be just average, it ended up to be very prosperous and competitive, just falling short of the City Championship.

A very exciting game early in the season, against the Harry Ainley Titans, almost guaranteed a successful year. The McNally Tigers finished the year with a 6-1 record, making the playoffs for the first time.

The team's successes would not be possible without the hard work of three outside assistant coaches: Mr. H. Twa (defensive team co-ordinator), Mr. J. Hrycun (offensive line co-ordinator), and Karl Penny (defensive backfield). With their assistance many team objectives were reached.

For all the seniors who were graduating, this was a classic season, we enjoyed having you as part of this team. To all those who are returning, we are looking forward to having you back next season, helping us attain that City Championship.

This group of very talented and coachable girls had a most successful season. They were a dedicated bunch of players who climaxed a season of excellent play, good sportsmanship, and lots of shenanigans by winning the City Championship!

Boys' Volleyball

The Senior Boys qualified for "A" Division of the Boys' Volleyball League by beating out Ross Shep in the pre-season tournament. They then went on to finish in fifth place in the league and were beaten by Eastglen in the fifth game of a best of five quarter final. Since there are eight returning players, next season should prove to be even better than this year.

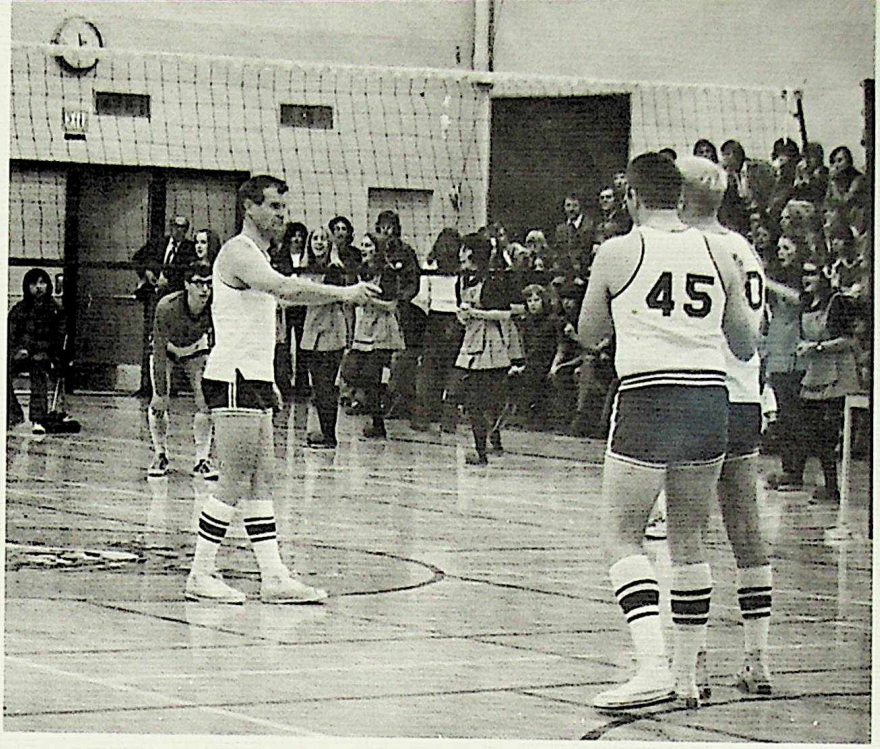
The Junior Boys proved their team excellence by making it all the way to the finals before they lost to Lazerte. This team will provide some valuable experience for the Seniors next year.



Visiting Teams

Our Senior Boys' Basketball team played host to the Harlem Clowns and the Edmonton Eskimos in exhibition basketball games this year. Earlier in the year the Edmonton City Police also came for a game of volleyball with our Senior Volleyball Team, and McNally fans were treated to an enjoyable noon hour.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The McNally Juniors had a very exciting season this year, going to the City Finals against Jasper Place. The Tigers lost 50-42 in the very close game, but played well and were a credit to the school.

Senior Basketball

The McNally Seniors played their best and more, but came out on the bottom of a record. They had a rebuilding year and with quite a few returning players in the fall, we hope for better things next year.

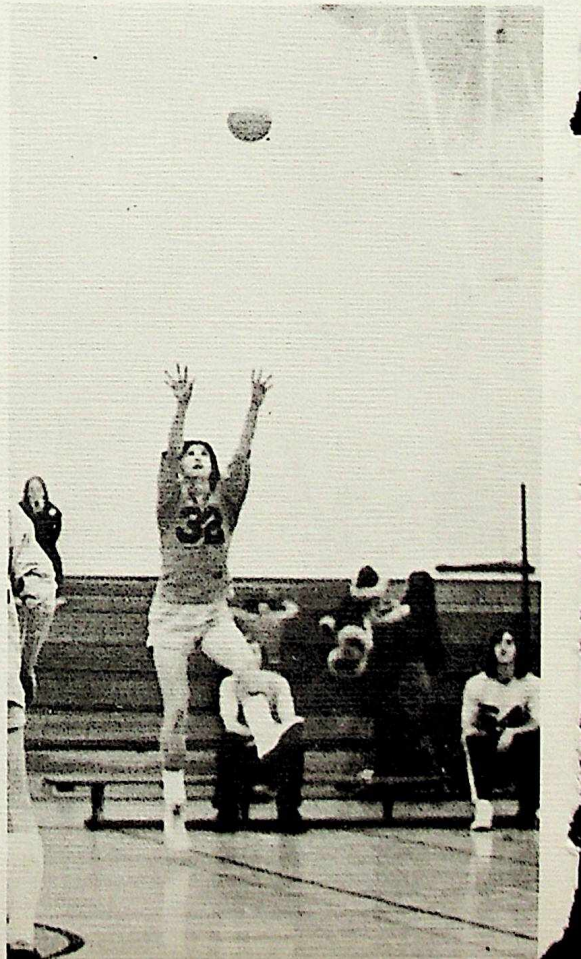
This year was filled with many well-fought games. Some they lost, but many they won. The season was filled with exciting trips such as the rewarding trip to Edson. The highlight of the game was coming home with a huge first place trophy, and the subsequent awarding of Most Valuable Player of the tournament to Val Ries. Another winner was Chris Sarchuk when she won the All-Star award. Girls' basketball games are not filled to capacity with fans but it is not because of lack of good gamemanship, which is in good supply.



GIRLS' BASKETBALL

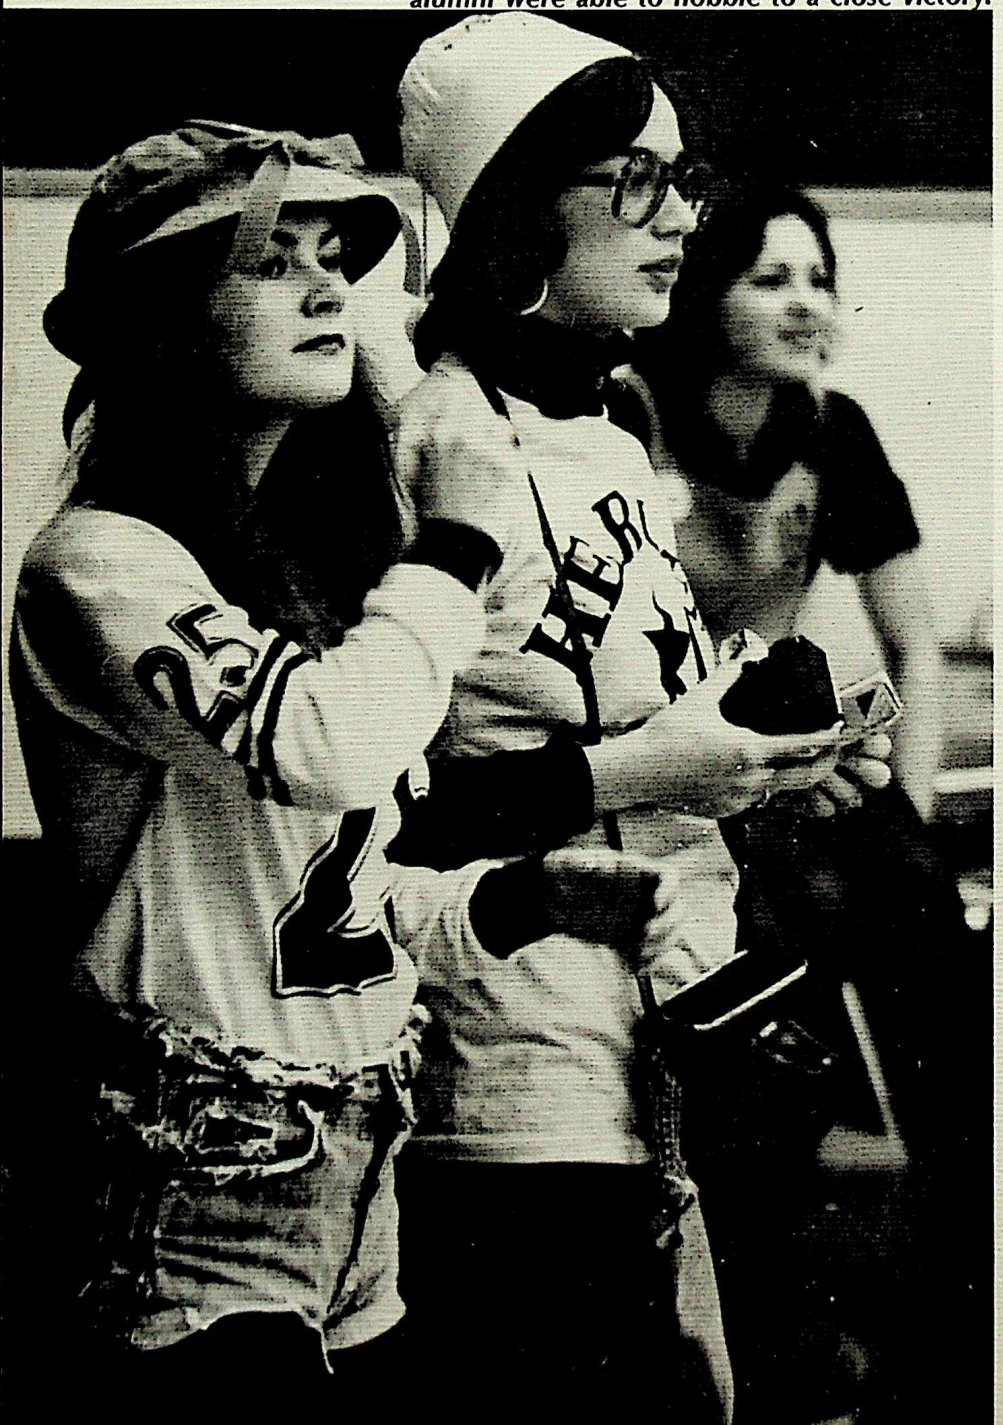
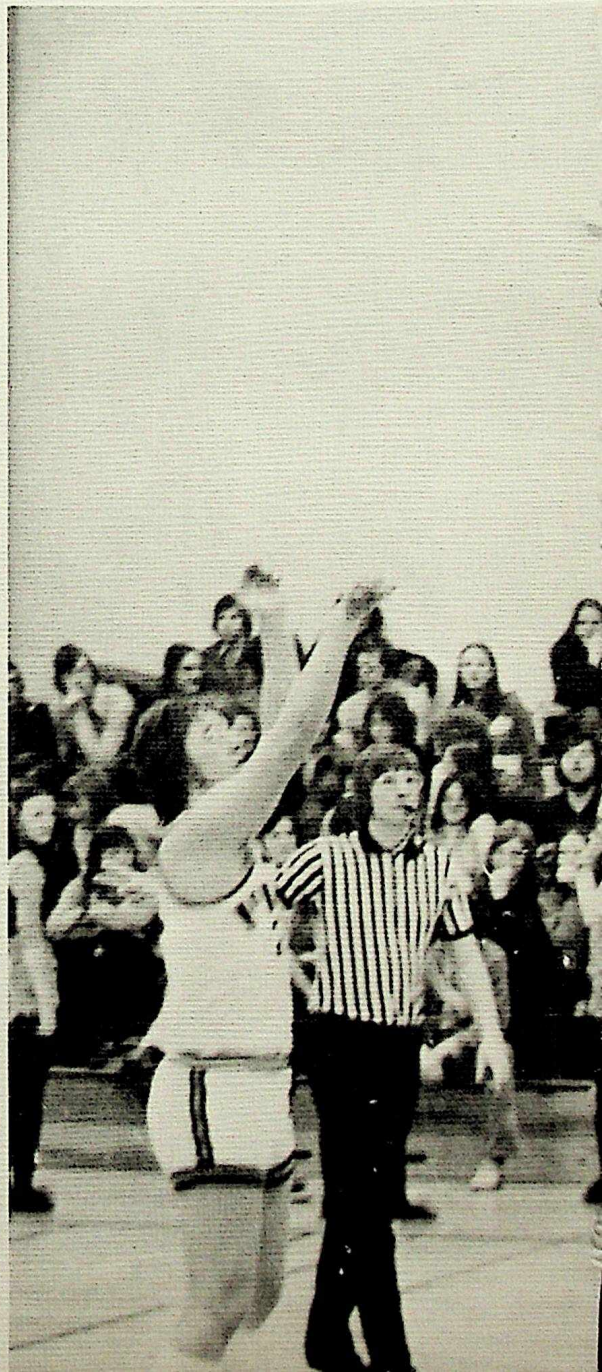
ALUMNI NIGHT

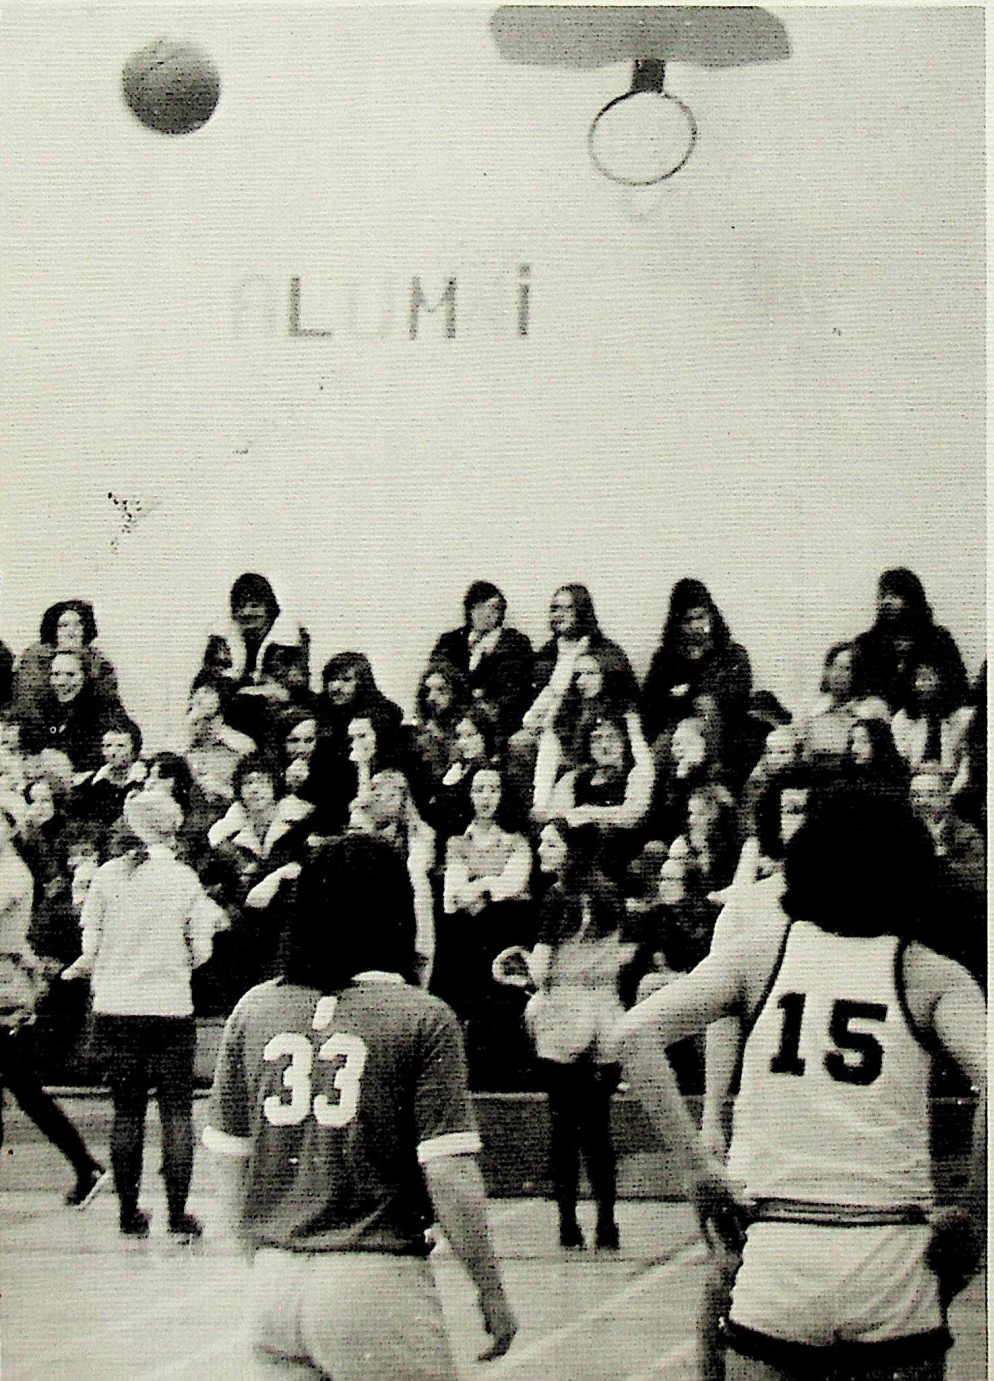
Once again, the golden moldies invaded the sacred courts of McNally's gymnasium in the annual alumni basketball game. As the pungent smell of mothballs drifted into the bleachers, the likes of Neil McNeil and Scramblin' Murray Scambler battled our young whippersnappin' seniors in an exciting contest.

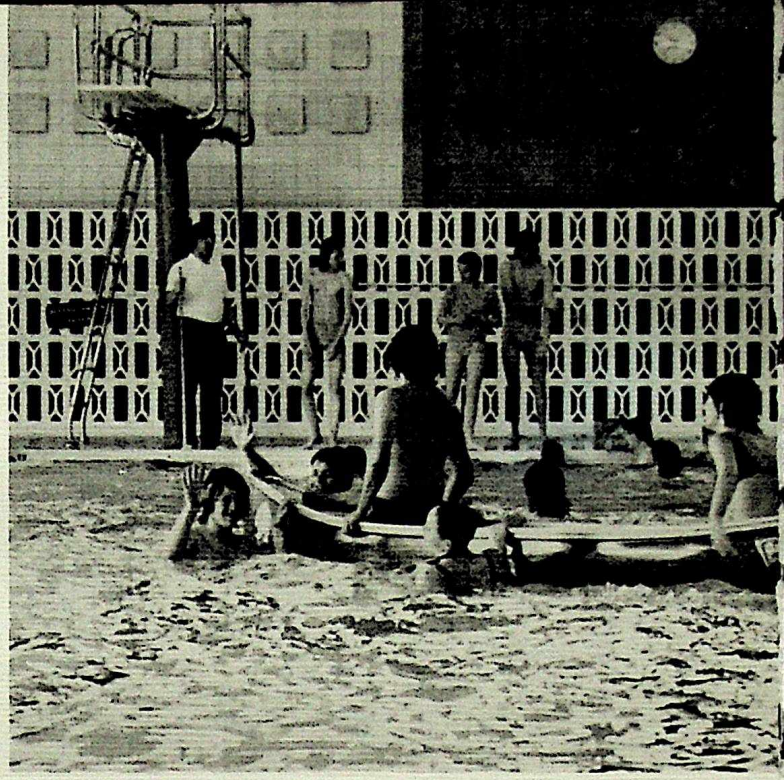
Despite a valiant attempt by our boys, the alumni were able to hobble to a close victory.





The alumni cheerleaders were looking as good as ever. In fact, after the boys stopped laughing hysterically at their old clothes, there was a mad rush for pencil stubs and scraps of paper — anything to write phone numbers on.





PHYS. ED. 30

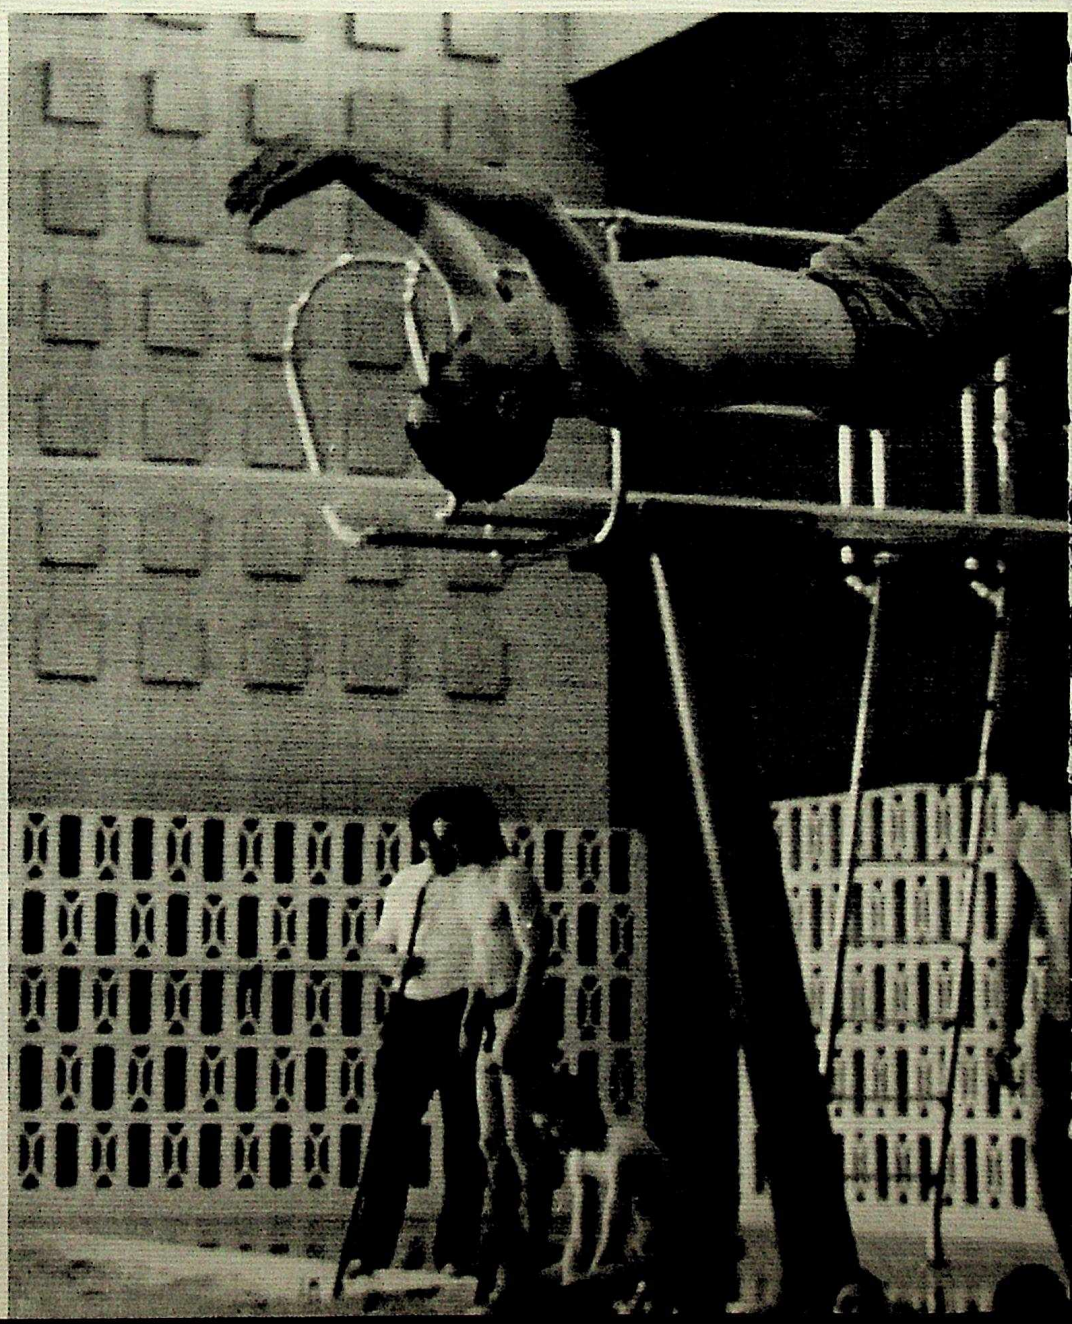
Phys. Ed. 30 is more than exciting, more than endurance or great muscles and more than just participating. It's getting really involved with the class, not just physically but also mentally.

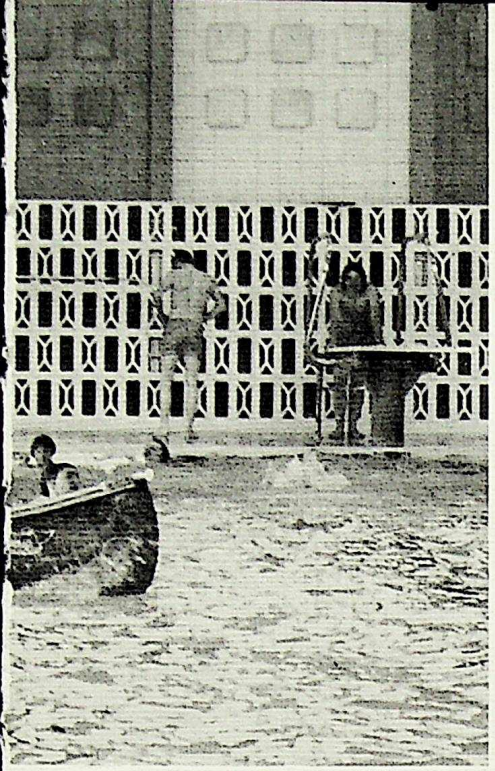
There is invention, organization and participating in all types of sports, with people whose opinions were all different and whose abilities were all unique.

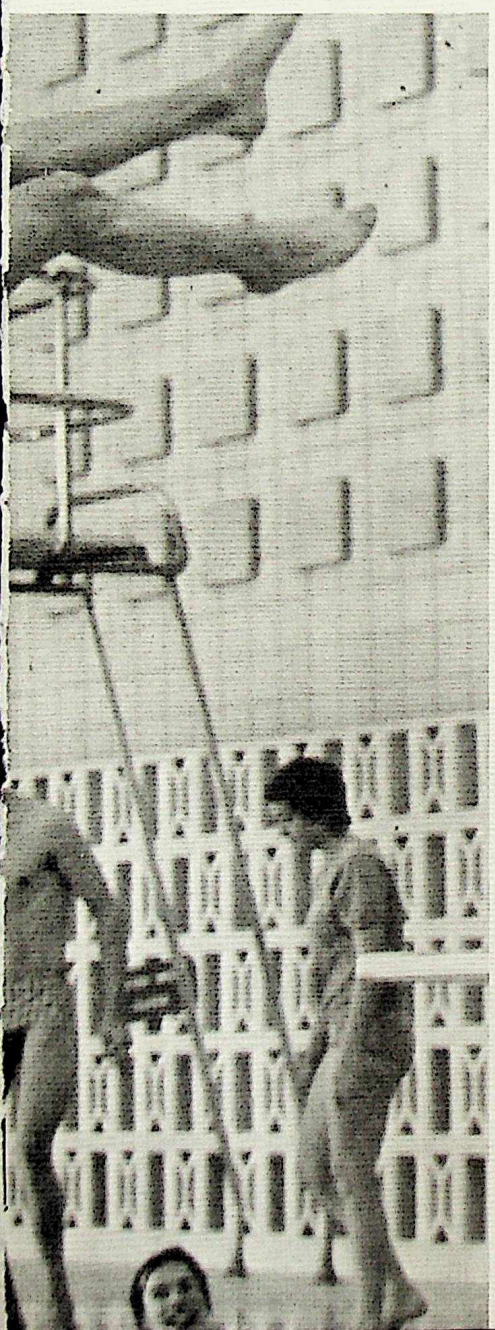
There was the new and exciting adventures such as curling at the Sportex and chipping craters out of the ice; there was the Social Dance where the only people who didn't have two left feet, had two right ones; and there were the rides home from the Bonnie Doone Pool in the Siberian cold and seeing who could pick the biggest icicle out of their hair.

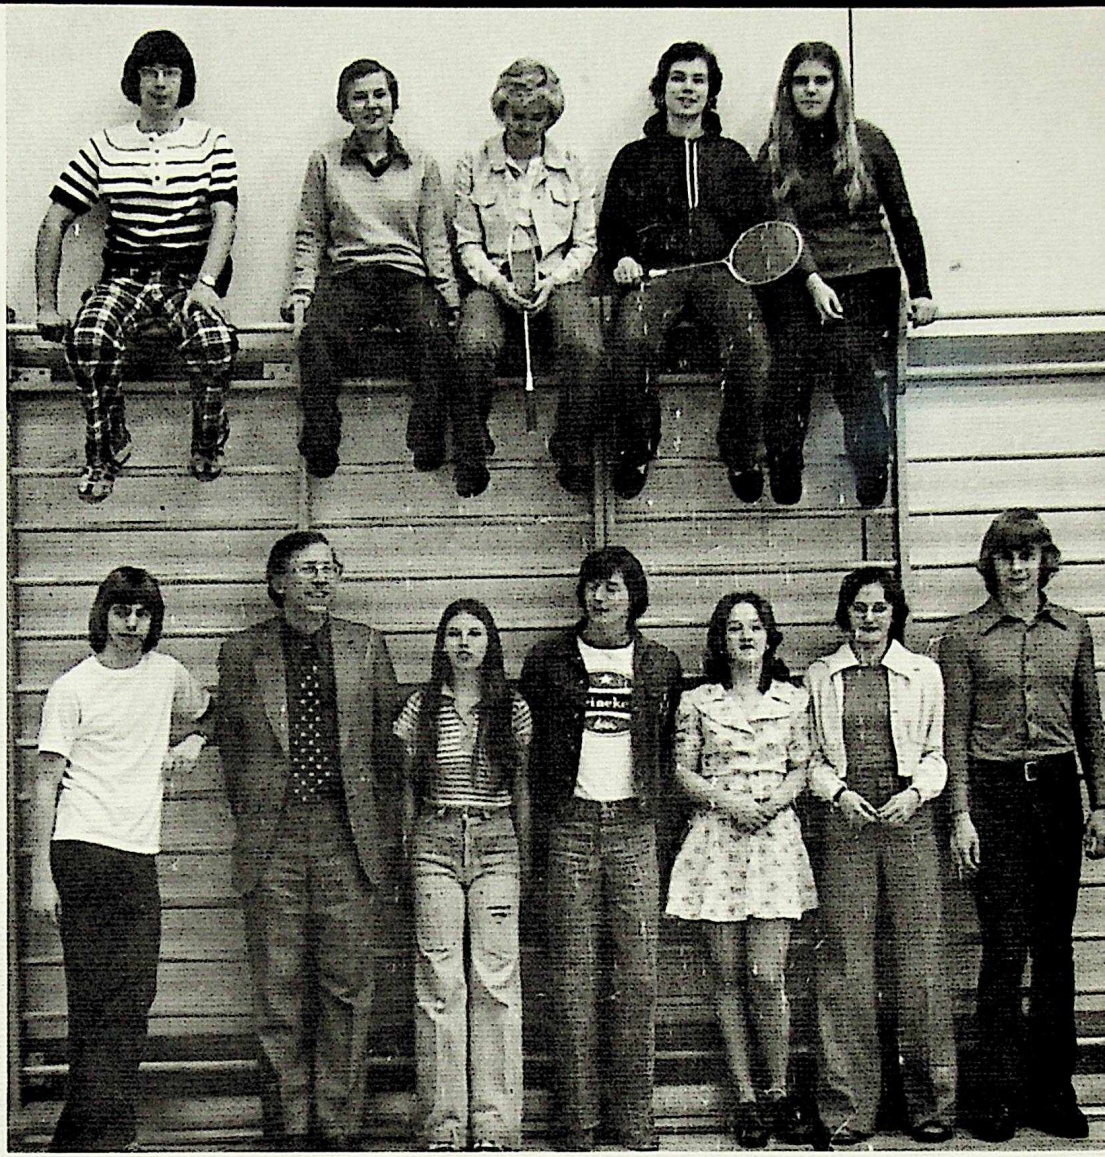
Camping . . . . . You really find out who your friends are: you live with them for five days, put up with them for five nights, and learn all about your fellow class mates. The climax of the semester was walking ten miles, with compass and map, and somehow ending up in the right place when you never knew where north was in the beginning.

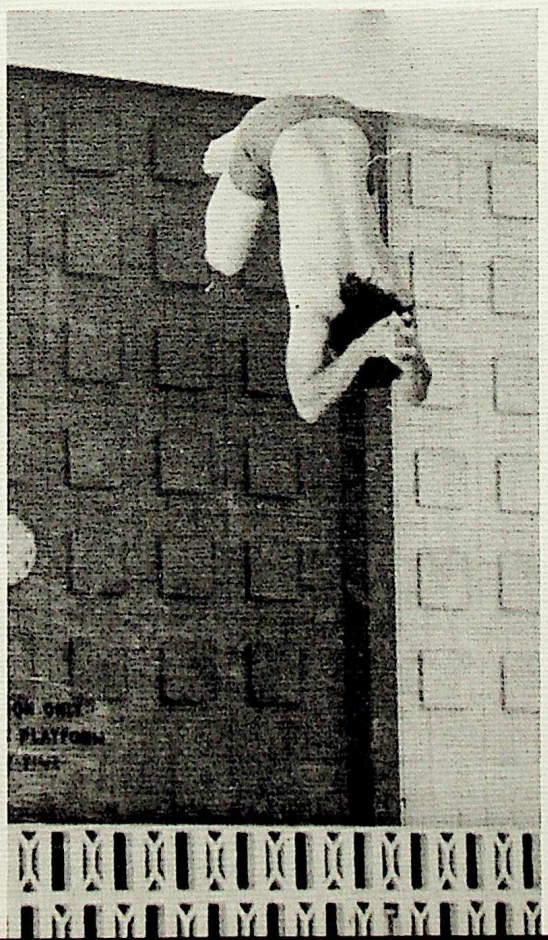
P.E. 30 being co-ed helped bridge the communication gap between the sexes and enlightened the school year for everyone. You gained new friends, whether they were students or teachers and found out that P.E. 30 was the course that you had been waiting for.











BADMINTON CLUB

The Trend Staff

Late nights, weekends, holidays . . . many long hours spent in cropping pictures, copying layouts, and typing script for the '74 TREND. Even though it was a lot of hard work the year proved very rewarding for the Trend staff both in the new friends they met and the experience they gained. Yearbooks are not only for the present — they are for the future and we hope that this edition of the Trend will provide you with many moments to remember.
